MADRID APPEALS TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

VANCOUVER IS UNDER POLICED STATES CHIEF

Commissioner W. A. Macdonald, Inquiring into Tucker Report, Hears Col. W. W. Foster Contrast City With Policing of Toronto and Winnipeg

Detectives Deny Duties Neglected

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Chief Constable W. W. Foster told Commissioner W. A. Macdonald at the inquiry into the W. A. Tucker report today that Vancouver, with an area of 44.22 square miles and a population of 306,000, is policed by only fifty-six patrolmen.

In a statement which showed Vancouver under-policed in comparison with other cities, Col. Foster said that of a total force of 338 men, fifty-four are employed in the police station staff (clerks, fingerprint experts, analysts, etc.); ninety are in the plain-clothes detail, working on morality, liquor enforcement, and other criminal investigation, and only 168 are left to be divided into three shifts of patrolmen.

TORONTO SYSTEM
Toronto, with an area of forty square miles and a population of 712,880, has a force of 1,018—one man to each 700 of population. Vancouver has one man to 900 of population.

Winnipeg has 313 policemen, one to 860 of population, and Portland has 416 men, one to 850 of population. Col. Foster said, R. L. Maitland, Commissioner of Police, commented: "The report shows Vancouver is under-policed compared with Toronto, Winnipeg and Portland."

"Yes, and Vancouver police are underpaid in comparison with other cities," the witness added.
CALIFORNIA TRIP
The Tucker report charges that Deputy Chief Alfred Grundy had taken a trip to California in a police car were aired at the inquiry, and Chief Foster explained the rule against employees using city cars did not apply to the police department.

BRAZIL GREET'S U.S. PRESIDENT

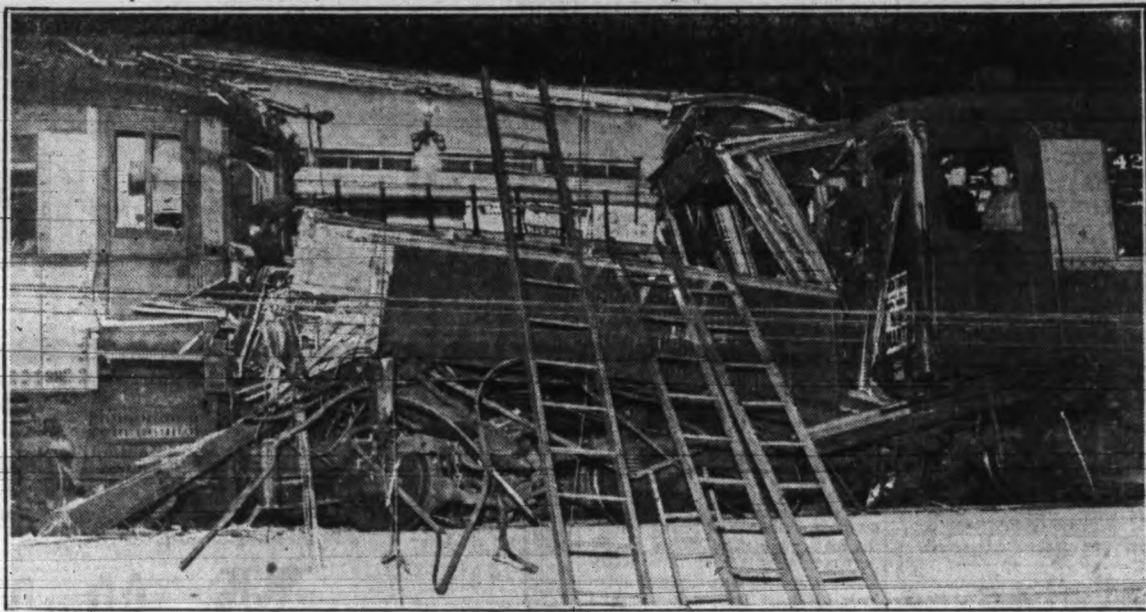

Associated Press
Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 27.—President Franklin D. Roosevelt set foot in Rio de Janeiro today on his inter-American mission of peace to be greeted by the outstretched arms of Brazil's President and the songs and cheers of the people.
He walked down gangplank from the cruiser Indianapolis and, despite a drizzling rain, removed his hat and stood at attention while massed bands played the Brazilian national anthem.
It was the second stop of the United States President's voyage to the Inter-American Peace Conference at Buenos Aires.

Ontario Farmers In Anti-war Move

United Group of Agrarians Propose Canada Indicate It Would Not Follow Other Members of Empire Into Hostilities

Canadian Press
Toronto, Nov. 27.—United Farmers of Ontario today were pledged to complete independence of Canada in her international relations.
Yesterday evening the provincial farm organization in convention here endorsed a resolution asking Prime Minister King to indicate to the 1937 Imperial Conference in London that Canada would not follow other members of the British Empire into war.
In a sweeping, three-point resolution the farmers set forth their desire

Train Crash on Chicago Elevated Line

In the wreckage pictured above nine persons were killed and sixty-five injured so seriously they were sent to hospitals. A northbound Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee electric train, which rides the elevated (known as the "L") tracks in Chicago, crashed into the rear of an "L" train that had stopped for a switch near the north city limits. The picture indicates the force of the crash. In the center is shown all that remained of a wooden "L" coach, ripped open and crushed between the heavy steel interurban car at the left and the lighter steel "L" car at the right.

Connell Group To Organize

Beer, Patronage, Public Utilities, Co-operatives in New Party's Platform

The Social Constructives, British Columbia's newest political party, will start a province-wide organization move after the Christmas holidays, Rev. Robert Connell, the leader, said today. The four members of the party in the B.C. Legislature will go through the country expounding their views and arranging for the formation of local groups.
Mr. Connell issued a statement of aims based upon his speeches in the Legislature. It contains six points.
1. Abolition of political patronage throughout the civil service, including the civil service itself and transportation, construction and maintenance.
2. Public control of public utilities and monopolies with a view to creating ownership when and where deemed advisable.
3. Promotion and encouragement of co-operative enterprises of both producers and consumers by guidance and assistance.
4. A co-ordinated agricultural and land settlement policy.
5. Legislative guarantee of the right of workers to organize freely in their unions for collective bargaining and for their personal and political liberty, with proper supervision for the just settlement of industrial disputes.
6. Complete government ownership of the brewing industry and of the whole business of the sale of alcoholic liquors.

Hon. J. G. Gardiner Tells Canadian Chamber of Agriculture Legislation May Be Required to Support New Organization Plan

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, issued a statement today saying he had told a delegation of the Canadian Chamber of Agriculture a new marketing act may be required to support the marketing organization soon to be launched by the Department of Agriculture. The delegation met the minister yesterday evening.
CO-OPERATION ASKED
The resolutions passed by the chamber at its meeting in Toronto this week were submitted. The chamber wanted an act which would provide much of the authority for a marketing board planned in the old act now before the Privy Council in London for a test of its constitutionality. It also asked the provincial governments to co-operate with the Dominion in the project of regulating natural products marketing.
The delegates were: J. H. Wesson, Regina, president; A. H. Morcos, Vancouver; E. J. Chambers, Vernon; B. C. F. H. Downing, Winnipeg; W. C. McKinnell, Calgary; and E. H. Mayberry, Ingersoll, Ont.
FACED APPROVED
The chamber passed resolutions endorsing the Canada-United States agreement. It urged the treaty provisions be extended at the first opportunity and that similar treaties be made with other countries.
It also endorsed the empire reciprocal trade agreements, urged the Canadian government "to give such terms with respect to the importation of such British and empire goods as will not displace such primary agricultural products as are calculated to develop trade and also facilitate the export of Canadian farm products."

MAN HELD; TWO HUNTED

Vancouver, Nov. 27 (Canadian Press).—Danny Haddon, no fixed address, was held today on charges of breaking and entering and automobile theft, while police sought two of his companions who broke away from Constable J. Imah here last night.
In a car used by the three men, detectives found a number of tools allegedly stolen from a Commercial Drive garage.

ZAHAROFF PASSES AWAY

"Mystery Man of Europe," Who Made Fortune From Arms, Dies

Associated Press
Monte Carlo, Nov. 27.—Sir Basil Zaharoff, so-called mystery armaments salesman, died here today.
He was eighty-six years old and accounted one of the wealthiest men in Europe.
In recent years he had lived the life of a retired country gentleman, ruling serenely at Chateau Ballincourt near Vallangouard, France, over a retinue of six personal Hindu attendants and a British secretary.
He died at 5 a.m. at the hotel to which he came ten days ago on his annual visit. Death was sudden, for he seemed in excellent health for his years, having motored and lunched at the hotel restaurant yesterday.
DID NOT GAMBLE
Sir Basil, whose fortune was built largely from his armament, shipbuilding, oil and banking enterprises, once was reputed to have had a controlling interest in the Monte Carlo gambling concessions, but he never gambled himself.
Physicians ascribed death to a heart attack. His adopted daughter, (Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

SOCIAL CREDIT MEN NAMED

Eleven Out of Forty-eight Candidates for B.C. Are Selected

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 27.—The British Columbia Social Credit League today announced the names of eleven candidates to contest seats in the next provincial election.
Decision to nominate now was made, according to a statement by the league, "to head off a snap election as staged in Manitoba, as well as to check a tendency of persons who do not understand or believe in Social Credit to attempt at this time to turn Social Credit into a political action."
The B.C. Social Credit League, incorporated under the Societies Act, resulted from a decision of a study group formed in 1932, to take political action.
The candidates announced are: Vancouver Centre, Dr. R. H. Smith and Paul McD. Keer; Vancouver-Burrard, Peter V. Paynter and W. R. Hamilton; Vancouver-Point Grey, R. M. Miller and William Savage; Vancouver East, C. W. Powell; Vancouver North, A. Harry Smith; Kelowna, A. J. Harrison of Nakusp; Nelson-Creston, Herbert L. Howe of Nelson.
The league plans to contest all forty-eight seats.
OFFICERS OF LEAGUE
Officers of the B.C. Social Credit League include: A. D. Creer, Vancouver, president; Major A. H. Jukes, Victoria, and Herbert L. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

Vancouver Fog Holding Ships

No Vessels Move in Burrard Inlet or at New Westminster

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Fog continued to paralyze both land and water traffic on British Columbia's lower mainland today. No prospects of relief were seen for at least another twenty-four hours.
Two men were in hospitals with injuries directly attributed to the fog. A number of holdup men operated under cover the heavy curtain and transportation company services were seriously curtailed, extra men and cars being pressed into service.
Deep-sea movements both here and at New Westminster were completely tied up and ships were unable to move about in the harbors. A number were waiting for berths to load or unload freight. The liner Empress of Asia, due to sail from Vancouver today for the Orient, was waiting for the fog to lift.
FERRIES DELAYED
Coastal passenger vessels and ferries continued to operate, however, but on disrupted schedules.
Twelve deep-sea ships today were tied up at berths on Vancouver's waterfront waiting for the fog to thin sufficiently for them to sail, while more than that number were anchored in the stream awaiting berths, and at least one ship was anchored in English Bay, unable to make her way through the First Narrows.

BRITISH WATCH AID IN SPAIN

Cooling in Attitude Toward Germany and Italy Reported As Cabinet Meets

Associated Press
London, Nov. 27.—A cooling off of the British attitude toward Germany and Italy was reported in informed circles today as the cabinet met in "emergency" session for what was understood to be a review of the entire Spanish situation.
These sources said Great Britain had rejected an "overture" to join the recently signed German-Japan anti-communist pact.
Poland, which recently reached an agreement with Great Britain that neither would join pacts dividing fascist and leftist powers into opposing groups, was said to have rejected a similar proposal.
QUESTION OF AID
Britain was represented as waiting to see whether fascist powers would extend to General Francisco Franco the aid now considered here to be necessary even for the capture of Madrid.
It was predicted there would be no change in the present policy toward Spain as a result of the special cabinet meeting pending word of the success of the British ban on arms shipments to Spain and the anchor-guarded neutral shipping in Barcelona harbor.
Informed sources said the cabinet ministers in their one-hour meeting discussed the question of belligerent rights for both sides in the Spanish civil war.

ONE CAR FOR SEVEN PEOPLE

Motor Registrations in B.C. Surpass 100,000 Mark For First Time

At the end of last month there was roughly one car for every seven persons in British Columbia, statistical reports from the Motor Record Office indicated today as the registrations of passenger and commercial machines went over the 100,000 mark for the first time in provincial history.
The new mark was set with the registration of 14,000 cars during October, a new all-time high for this month, which showed an increase of 201 over the registrations in October last year.
The actual number of vehicles in operation on provincial highways at the end of last month was 100,373, or 7,172 more than there were last year at the same time.
Of this total 80,720 were passenger machines and 17,588 commercial.
A curious feature of the October figures was the fact that the increase was due solely to used car registrations. Totals of registrations for new cars and renewals were both less than in October, 1935.
Motorcycle and trailer registrations also show gains for the year. There were seventy-nine more motorcycles in operation and 591 trailers.

General Emilio Kieber, Naturalized in Toronto Many Years Ago, Says Rebels Will Be Flung Back From Spanish Capital by Christmas

Canadian Press
London, Nov. 27.—General Emilio Kieber, picturesque figure who commands the international column helping to defend Madrid, is a naturalized Canadian.
In a special dispatch from Madrid, The London News-Chronicle speaks of Kieber as a man in his early fifties, of mixed German and French descent. When he was a child, Kieber's family went to Toronto, where Kieber was naturalized.
He fought in the Great War. In 1919 he went with one of the armies of intervention to Siberia to try to wean Russia from Bolshevism.
Gen. Kieber is described as a solidly built man of middle height, with greying hair brushed back, dark eyebrows, lively and slightly ironical brown eyes, wearing a grey jacket, khaki trousers and blue puttees.
VICTORY BY CHRISTMAS
"By Christmas," Gen. Kieber says,

"the rebels will be flung back from Madrid, provided Italy, Germany and Portugal do not dip their fingers much deeper in the pie."

One of the leaders of the international force in Madrid, Nicotelli, an Italian, once a political refugee in Switzerland with Mussolini, in those days of his early career Mussolini was so ardent a Socialist that the Swiss government issued a decree of expulsion against him.

Five Candidates for Mayor; Five-year Domination of City Council by Independent Labor Is Tested

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—A vote of 107,631 was possible today as Winnipeg's electors went to the polls to elect a mayor, nine aldermen and six school trustees for 1937.
A five-year domination of the City Council by the Independent Labor party was threatened with five candidates in the field for the mayoralty,

Associated Press
Geneva, Nov. 27.—The Spanish government appealed today to the League of Nations against Germany and Italy under article 11 of the Covenant dealing with "any war or threat of war," and asked for an immediate meeting of the League Council.
It was expected the council would be called to meet next week.

RECOGNITION OF FRANCO
The Spanish government asked for the special meeting of the Council to consider whether international peace were endangered in view of Italo-German recognition of the insurgent regime. This recognition, the communication stated, constituted a situation "affecting international relations and menacing peace and good will among nations."

Article II of the covenant states that any "war or threat of war" is a matter of concern to the whole League, whether affecting members of the League or not. It provides that the League shall take "any action that may be deemed wise and effectual to safeguard the peace of nations."

SECRETARY TO ACT
In the case of an emergency, the secretary-general must, on the request of any League member, summon the Council.
It is declared to "the friendly right of each member" to bring to the League's attention "any circumstance whatever affecting international relations to disturb international peace or the good understanding between nations, on which peace depends."

Operations Behind Insurgents in South Declared Threat to Flank

Canadian Press from Havas
Madrid, Nov. 27.—A government column operating behind the insurgent army besieging Madrid is fighting its way toward the Fascist base at Talavera de la Reina (southwest of Madrid). The Emergency Defence Council announced today.

Government strategists hailed this operation as a serious thrust against the right flank of the Fascist forces attempting to storm the capital.

By JAMES C. OLDFIELD
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Madrid, Nov. 27.—The besieged people of Madrid began today to turn their bomb-torn city into a vast labyrinth of underground passages.
Seizing whatever implements were available, or using their bare hands, householders began tunnelling from cellar to cellar to provide places of refuge in case their homes are brought crashing down on their heads.

HUNDREDS SMOTHERED
During the devastating shelling of the last three weeks, hundreds of refugees in the basements of the city have died of asphyxiation. Against the grim prospect of being smothered or crushed death, Madrilenos sought to establish a means of escape by the house-to-house burrowing.

ZAHAROFF PASSES AWAY

the Countess de Bourbon, was at his bedside.

Sir Basil Zaharoff, "the mystery man of Europe," gained his vast wealth and his reputation as "maker and breaker of kings," through huge deals in armaments and munitions.

DRAWN INTO INQUIRIES

During the last years of his life, two of the world's great powers sought to draw aside the veil of secrecy with which he had cloaked his existence. His name was linked prominently with arms investigations in both Great Britain and the United States.

In 1936, Sir Basil's adopted country of Great Britain, which in 1919 had given him a knighthood for his services to the Allies, brought his name before a royal commission investigating international munitions manufacture.

At that time, the chairman of the board of Vickers Ltd., and Vickers-Armstrong Ltd., the Great British arms firms, testified Zaharoff had taken no part in the companies' activities since 1924 except to retain an interest in the Spanish branch.

INTEREST IN U.S.

In 1934, agents of the United States Senate's special investigating committee reported they had found a connection between the master arms salesman and United States war materials manufacturers. Letters from Zaharoff were said to have been found in the files of some of the leading munitions-makers of the United States.

INTEREST IN SPAIN

It was in Spain that the man of mystery was reported to have laid the foundation of his fabulous wealth. And it was to Spain that his interest turned in the last days of his life—but friends said, it was a sentimental and not a commercial interest.

A battery of secretaries prepared day-by-day accounts of the progress of the civil war in Spain for Sir Basil's information.

OBSCURE BEGINNING

Zaharoff rose from an obscurity so dense that not even the date of his birth was known, to become the first salesman of Europe, selling his wares of arms and munitions to nearly all of the powers on the continent.

He was the directing ability that supplied the Allies with many of the materials of war from 1914 to 1918 and the ramifications of his interests were shown in later years by his backing of Venizelos, his lifelong friend, in the establishment of the Greek republic.

Many stories were told of his origin. Public records merely say 1850 as his birth date, and "Basil Zaharoff of Paris" as his father. Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, when he was Prime Minister of Great Britain during the World War, desired to know Sir Basil's career in detail. The British secret service took up the inquiry and the results broadly were that Zaharoff was born in Constantinople of a Russian father and a Greek mother.

EDUCATED AT ETON

The father sent Basil to England to be educated and he was entered at Eton. In addition to his English education he had the facility of the Levantine in his easy acquaintance with French, Italian, Spanish and Arabic. His father left him £40,000, which, the British found, was lost in gambling soon after he left school. The next several years are an obscure page. Sir Basil was supposed to have been a newspaperman in New York and perhaps other American cities. He was well acquainted with the United States and followed politics and finance there.

OPERATIONS IN EGYPT

Zaharoff's entrance into international affairs appears to have been made in the early seventies when he was reported to have supplied contraband arms to Egyptian and Upper Nile insurgents. Soon afterward he became agent in Athens for Vickers and Company, arms manufacturers, and in a reserved way was a force in Greek politics. He gave and subscribed the equivalent of millions of dollars to help Greece in the Balkan wars. His sisters, Miss Zoe Zaharoff and Miss Sevasti, were well known socially in the Greek capital.

During the Great War, Sir Basil was an influential figure. He was a generous donor to the poor of Paris. He held the degree of Doctor of Laws in the University of Paris and Doctor of Civil Law in Oxford University.

HIS LIFE'S ROMANCE

The flower of Zaharoff's romance blossomed in the palace at Madrid in the late eighties. Descending the grand staircase, he saw a man wearing the great collar of the Golden Fleece seize a woman by the neck and shake her. Zaharoff jerked the man violently backward and stepped between the couple.

The woman was away as though about to fall and Zaharoff put an arm around her. The man was Prince Francisco de Bourbon, a cousin of the King of Spain. The woman, who many years later became Lady Zaharoff, was the twenty-year-old wife of the prince, formerly the Duchess de Villafraña de los Caballeros, and as wife of the prince, the Duchess de Marchena.

There was a scene, but the encounter was the beginning of friendship between the duchess and Zaharoff. Prince Francisco's mind became disordered until his family was obliged to confine him in a country residence where he died in 1924. Zaharoff and the duchess were married the same year, and Lady Zaharoff's death in 1925 was a severe blow to Sir Basil.

in the defence of Madrid, in an interview today in a Madrid newspaper.

"From Estremadura to Madrid the enemy fought with great superiority in war materials which we lacked," he said, "but when they arrived at the gates of Madrid they were taught a sharp lesson and were unable to make any impression."

QUESTION OF NERVES

"Bombardments frequently were greeted with the singing of the Internationale. The situation around Madrid is a question of nerves. The enemy is on the point of breaking down and during the next few days we shall see them incapable of retaining control over the reckless Moorish troops."

Gen. Kiebler said he anticipated the government forces would obtain a final victory about the end of 1936. But he said they must display more confidence, more pugnacity, and, above all, greater activity on all fronts.

Premier Aberhart of Alberta was announced as general chairman of this organization, and from Edmonton extended his good wishes.

OTHER SCHOOLS

The Social Credit schools of thought in the province vary somewhat in their interpretation of the movement's principles. The legal term of the Liberal Government of Premier Pattullo does not expire until the fall of 1938. Premier Pattullo stated recently he did not know when an election would be held.

Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Police today were searching for purse-snatchers, one of them a woman, who took advantage of dense fog to escape after robbing five women here last night.

Loose taken by the thieves was small, according to police reports. Shopbreakers entered premises of the M. Lang Shoe Company and stole forty pairs of shoes valued at $200.

Fifteen other cases of breaking and entering and thirty-one of theft were recorded between 3 p.m. Thursday and 7 a.m. today.

Their task was made difficult by the fact that almost every available spade in the city has been pressed into use for the building of fortifications.

BUILDINGS TORN

Scared by shells and air bombs, the city's most beautiful buildings, with torn curtains flapping through jagged window panes, today resembled the structures of Flanders twenty years ago.

LIGHT SKIRMISHES

Light skirmishing made up the only activity on the University City battlefield in northwestern Madrid after a fierce, early-week battle. Militiamen were throwing hand grenades at the insurgent who, before dawn, tried their old trick of sending two or three tanks on a raid toward the model prison.

A Havas dispatch from Madrid last night said:

Socialist forces, which two months ago were driven in headlong rout from Toledo (south of Madrid) by Gen. Francisco Franco's Moors, tonight were reported poised within striking distance of the ancient capital. Insurgents from Aranjuez in a carefully-planned offensive, Government forces drove the insurgent right flank back in a series of smash attacks, the government asserted.

BY JEAN D'HOSPITAL

Havas Correspondent

Talavera de la Reina, Spain, Nov. 27.—The insurgent war machine cut deeper into northern Madrid today as Fascist commanders hastened plans for an overpowering attack.

Drenched by heavy rains, Moors and legionnaires scored advances yesterday in the northwestern zone and occupied a number of houses bordering the small Plaza de Toros.

The insurgents met little resistance. The buildings occupied dominate highways leading into Madrid from the Sierras north of the city.

CENTRAL AREA SHELLED

Fascist guns silenced government batteries stationed behind the former royal palace in west-central Madrid.

Indications increased here the Fascists are preparing for a new smash against the capital as soon as the weather improves.

Despite a low ceiling, twelve insurgent tri-motored planes yesterday swooped low and unloaded several hundred bombs over the northwestern sector.

PLANES DRIVEN OFF

Barcelona, Spain, Nov. 27.—Insurgent planes flew over the government naval base at Cartagena today but, reports reaching here said, were driven off by government anti-aircraft guns.

POWDER ACROSS BORDER

Toulouse, France, Nov. 27.—Associated Press—Police said today they had uncovered evidence showing the contents of a mysterious freight car or powder, which disappeared November 22, had reached Spain.

The car, they said, was unloaded near the Spanish frontier and the sacks of powder carried across the border by 200 men.

Associated Press

London, Nov. 27.—Delayed reports from Madrid described Spanish government troops holding their lines against insurgent attacks on the capital today.

Telephone communications between London and Madrid were halted since the departure of United States employees of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, whose building has been shelled several times by the Fascists. Italy, Balearic front.

Canadian Press from Havas

Paris, Nov. 27.—The Socialist newspaper Populaire said today that fifty Italian war planes were poised for a flight to the Balearic Islands to participate in a large scale attack on Barcelona.

In a dispatch from Rome the newspaper said it had learned from an authoritative source that thirty Italian pursuit planes and twenty trim-motored Caproni bombers would hop off early tomorrow for the Balearics, where they would take on munitions for the Barcelona raid.

The Fascist attack on the Catalan capital probably would be launched early Monday, Le Populaire said.

DENIALS FROM ROME

The newspaper's sensational charges of an imminent violation of the international "Hands Off Spain" agreement followed closely emphatic denials from Rome of reports of Italian aid to the Spanish insurgents.

One of the reports denied was a statement by The London News-Chronicle that several hundred Italian planes and aviators were massed in the Balearics to aid 40,000 insurgents ready for an offensive against Barcelona.

DAILY ARRIVALS

The News-Chronicle correspondent at Palma, Mallorca, described the daily arrival of Italian war supplies, and accused the Fascists of having instituted a "reign of terror" after assuming control of the strategic Mediterranean island.

Italian authorized circles denied Italy had any imperialistic designs on the Balearic Islands.

French Ship Off Spain Searched

Insurgents Release Ss. Ville Bastia; Francelessness in France

Bayonne, France, Nov. 27.—An insurgent Spanish warship stopped and searched the French freighter Ville Bastia, near Cape Ortegal, it was learned here today.

The 1,336-ton ship arrived here this morning from Algiers. A warship bearing the red-and-gold Spanish insurgent banner stopped and searched the ship yesterday. The vessel belongs to the Compagnie Francaise des Extraits Sincerosaux et Tannants. Its home port is Le Havre.

The insurgent action caused concern among observers here in view of the tense situation in waters off Spain and the French government's pledge its merchantmen would be protected by warships in the event of difficulties outside Spanish territorial waters.

BOXER AND HIS WIFE ARE SLAIN

Associated Press

Huntingdon Beach, Calif., Nov. 27.—William H. Papke Sr., former middleweight boxing champion, and his estranged wife, Mrs. Edna Eloise Papke, were shot and killed last night in Mrs. Papke's home on Balboa Island.

A neighbor who summoned police said Papke had called on his former wife, from whom he was divorced about a month ago, and the shooting followed.

Mrs. Papke was shot twice in the vicinity of the heart. Papke's body was penetrated by three bullet holes through the chest.

Papke, who resided in Altadena, was about fifty years of age. He won a championship in 1907.

His wife's age was given at forty-six.

Mrs. Helen Cabanet, manager of the apartment where Mrs. Papke resided, told police she heard the two quarrelling after Mrs. Papke had rejected the former boxer's plea that they effect a reconciliation.

Change in Movie Rule Protested

Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Protest against proposed changes in regulations governing projection of moving pictures has been forwarded to Attorney-General Gordon Sloan by the British Columbia Projectionists' Society.

The changes would permit one projectionist and one apprentice to operate moving picture theatre equipment.

"British Columbia's projection regulations are in grave danger of being broken down to the detriment of public safety," Guy Graham, secretary of the projectionists, said yesterday.

"In addition, the proposed changes would mean loss of employment approximating $140,000."

BRITISH Toyland Now Open

The very spirit of Christmas itself surrounds this Toyland, for the setting is the most beautiful this store has ever presented for such an occasion. And no less interesting are the Toys themselves, for they are from England and fairly brim with novel ideas. Furthermore, they are unmistakably of superior quality, and the prices are extremely reasonable. When you see this display you will realize why it has been possible for British manufacturers to capture the world's market for better-built toys. We urge early shopping with all sincerity. We know that such unusually fine Toys will be eagerly purchased, and when they are gone, our stock simply cannot be replenished before Christmas. Shop now while the selection is at the very height of its variety.

Home Rebuilding Support Is Urged

Co-operation by Industries in National Scheme Called For by A. B. Purvis

Canadian Press
Montreal, Nov. 27.—Arthur B. Purvis, chairman of the National Employment Commission, in a dinner address yesterday evening, appealed for support of the federal government's home renovation plan by industry.

"The plan, in my opinion, is going to succeed in so far as those who are helped by it offer their co-operation," said Mr. Purvis. "Upon their efforts depends the success of the whole scheme."

Early in the life of the National Employment Commission the commission realized the value of house renovation, said the speaker, and immediately set out on a study of the scheme.

A plan having been drawn up by the commission, it was adopted by Parliament last September. In three parts, it consisted besides the home renovation scheme, of the enlargement of the Dominion Housing Act and a low-cost housing scheme.

The latter Mr. Purvis described as "a very ticklish and delicate subject," declaring the commission hoped to present a complete outline of a scheme to Parliament early next year.

Barber Serving Aviators Dies

Associated Press
New York, Nov. 27.—"Mike the Barber," who boasted he had shaved every famous United States flier except Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh at Roosevelt Field, died yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage and New York's aviation reporters mourned an able assistant.

His full name was Michael Randall, thirty-seven, and his barber shop was just off the press room at the big flying field. After the late Wiley Post, Frank Hawks, Clarence Chamberlin, Clyde Pangborn and other famous pilots had completed outstanding flights, it was the custom for "Mike the Barber" to steer them into his chair.

QUESTIONS ASKED ON INSURANCE

Canadian Press
London, Nov. 27.—Further questions were asked in the House of Commons yesterday regarding the status of the Independent Order of Foresters' with headquarters at Toronto. Tom Johnston and Tom Williams, Labor members, previously had asked what steps had been taken to protect policy-holders in what they termed the default of the organization.

Answering further questions from Johnston, Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, said that as far as he was aware, the society had met its obligations respecting all policies issued since 1917.

He said no communication had been addressed to the Canadian government in the matter. He pointed out that the society's companies doing business with the United Kingdom, whether incorporated in Britain or abroad, were already subject to the same statutory requirements.

Staff Moves Into New Vancouver City Hall

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Employees at the Vancouver City Hall today were packing records and office equipment in a move to the new $1,500,000 City Hall. It is hoped to have all equipment in the new building by Monday. The City Council meeting scheduled for Monday will be held in the new hall.

S. Tamura, Known Here, Dies in Japan

Canadian Press
Tokyo, Nov. 27.—Two prominent Japanese businessmen who held close commercial interests in Canada for many years, died in Japan recently.

Shinkichi Tamura, vice-president of the Canada-Japan Society, died at his home in Kobe. For many years Mr. Tamura held interests in British Columbia and was well known in Vancouver and Victoria, where he started his business career.

S. Ubukata, a business man who had offices in Toronto, died early this month. His daughters were educated in Toronto. One of them is now Viscountess Fujinami.

SMALL ACTION IS DISMISSED

Toronto Judge Upholds Widow's Disposal of Estate of Missing Man

Canadian Press
Toronto, Nov. 27.—A spectacular story that vanished Ambrose Small was murdered seventeen years ago, based on a confession ascribed to his wife, collapsed late yesterday when Mr. Justice Nicol Jeffrey dismissed with costs an action to upset the Small will, involving a $2,000,000 estate.

"Incredible," the judge called the case made out at an eight-day trial by witnesses for Mary Florence Small, sister of the long-lost millionaire theatre owner. In an oral judgment lasting an hour and ten minutes in non-jury Ontario Supreme Court, he asserted the purported murder confession of the late Mrs. Theresa Small was an "unquestioned forgery."

The whole case against the dead Mrs. Small, in the judge's opinion, was instigated by Patrick Sullivan, who spent years investigating the Small mystery and said from the witness stand this week that he had watched Mrs. Small sign the confession in Toronto in 1909, six years before her death.

"WEB OF SCANDAL."
"I would put nothing past him," said Mr. Justice Jeffrey, referring to Sullivan. "The case he called 'a web of scandal and blackmail.'"

ESTATE WAS $2,000,000
Specifically, Mary Florence Small sought to prevent payment of most of the $2,000,000 estate to Roman Catholic organizations in Toronto, named beneficiaries in Mrs. Small's will. Her witnesses attacked the probate will of Small, made in 1909, as a forgery. This will left Small's estate to the widow.

NEW SCOTTISH M.P.
IS LABOR MAN
Greenstock, Scotland, Nov. 27.—Labor took a House of Commons seat from the Liberal Nationals yesterday when R. Gibson won the Greenstock by-election.

The Labor candidate polled 20,594 votes, while V. E. Cornelius, Liberal National, drew 17,990.

The seat was vacated by the death of Sir Godfrey Collins, who ran up a majority of 3,354 votes in the last election over the then Labor candidate, T. Irwin.

GOVERNOR IS REGINA VISITOR

Regina, Nov. 26.—Lord Tweedsmuir was a visitor here today.

With no formality the Governor-General arrived yesterday evening for a two-day stop. He was welcomed by Lieutenant-Governor McNab and other provincial and city officials.

Baron Tweedsmuir attended a dinner at Government House yesterday evening.

He had a busy programme today.

First National Safety Conference at Ottawa Passes Resolutions on Automobile Regulations

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The first National Safety Conference today was on record with resolutions favoring stricter enforcement of laws dealing with drunken drivers, national uniformity in automobile license requirements and traffic laws and compulsory inspection of motor vehicles twice a year.

The conference, ending its sessions yesterday, deplored failure to check and punish adequately persons driving cars while under the influence of liquor or narcotics. It urged a proclamation be issued by provincial governments, under sponsorship of the Dominion administration, calling for observance of a national safety week in 1937.

"FIXING" OF SUMMONSES
Another resolution says the conference "views with alarm" interference with enforcement of traffic regulations and urges all organizations co-operate in backing law enforcement agencies. The resolution does not enlarge on the point of interference, but it is taken to mean "fixing" of court summonses for traffic law violations.

Col. Anatole Plante of Montreal, president of the Dominion Automobile Safety Council, which called the convention, urged the conferees keep up the work started at the meeting. He expressed hope a second conference would be held next year.

INSURANCE QUESTION
The conference took no action on the suggestion that it endorse compulsory automobile insurance, expressing the view in discussion that the system in force for several years in Massachusetts had not been an unqualified success.

Walter L. Saunders of Ottawa, district engineer of the Ontario department of highways, said most accidents occurred on the best highways, indicating safety does not depend entirely on good roads.

REICH ABOLISHES Play Criticism

Associated Press
Berlin, Nov. 27.—Theatrical and literary criticisms were abolished in Germany today by a decree of Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda.

Goebbels, announcing the regulation at the annual meeting of the Reich Culture Chamber, declared criticism would be replaced by "complaint" and "description."

"Any former critic who feels he is capable of more than mere contemplation or description of another's work will be free to show what he can do himself," Goebbels said.

SAFEGUARDS FOR OLD AGE FUND

Associated Press
Tempe, Fla., Nov. 27.—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday called for amendment of the United States Social Security Act to protect the gigantic old age reserve fund from congressional "whims."

Pointing out the old age fund would reach an estimated $46,000,000,000 by 1980 and payment of annuities would depend on congressional appropriations, Green said:

"There is a danger Congress might get whimsical and refuse to make these appropriations—or use the fund for some other purpose."

The payment of these annuities must be guaranteed without a peradventure of doubt.

An amendment to earmark the old age reserve would be among many the federation would send to congress this winter, Green said.

Young Man Is Hanged at Quebec

Canadian Press
Quebec, Nov. 27.—Youthful refusal of St. Jean des Chateaux, Roland Sinclair, was hanged today in the snowing yard of the Quebec jail for the year-old axe slaying of Lucien Malo, Montreal garage mechanic and erstwhile bootlegger who used to supply Sinclair with cheap alcohol. Sinclair was twenty-seven years old yesterday.

Sinclair was convicted of slaying, robbing and burying Malo in a shallow roadside ditch.

The sudden attitude of Sinclair, hitherto almost destitute, opened the way to his arrest a year ago for the killing.

COSSACKS JOIN SOVIET ARMY

Loyalty Pledged by Group at Congress in Moscow

Associated Press
Moscow, Nov. 27.—Brilliantly garbed Cossacks, fierce traditional fighters for the Russian Czars, yesterday pledged their lives to Joseph Stalin and the Soviet Union.

Before the wildly cheering delegates to the All-Union Congress of the Soviets, a group of some sixty Cossacks stood stiffly on the rostrum while their leader shouted that the Cossacks were again an organized fighting unit and ready to lay down their lives for the "Soviet fatherland."

Full liberties and the right to enter the red army were restored only a year ago to the Cossacks, professional soldiers for the old Czars.

Stalin himself joined in the long cheers for the Cossacks.

Tokio, Nov. 27.—Hon. R. Randolph Bruce, recently-appointed Canadian Minister to Japan, yesterday was ceremoniously presented to the Emperor and high court dignitaries.

Mr. Bruce, formerly Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, was brought to the Emperor's palace in a court carriage and an escort of mounted lancers of the Imperial Bodyguard sent by His Majesty.

Foreign Minister Hachiro Arata presented Mr. Bruce to the Emperor, to whom he handed his credentials from King Edward, as well as the letters of recall for the former minister, Sir Herbert Marler.

The new minister and Mrs. Bruce were received in audience by the Emperor.

Textile Inquiry Sessions Ended

Commissioner Turgeon Will Prepare Report on Industry in Canada

Canadian Press
Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Following ten months of exhaustive inquiry into the Canadian textile industry the one-man royal commission headed by Mr. Justice W. P. A. Turgeon of Regina wound up its public hearings here yesterday.

Organized in February, the commission has been occupied almost continually with the exception of several weeks during the summer, in investigating general affairs of the industry. The number of exhibits filed with the commissioner was 1,246; evidence taken amounted to 4,250,000 words; yesterday was the 100th day of public sessions.

The early financial history of Dominion Textiles Limited yesterday engaged the attention of Commissioner Turgeon. J. G. Glasco, chartered accountant, shared the stand with C. Blair Gordon, managing director of the Dominion Textiles, throughout the last hearing.

Seeking to rebut the evidence given last week by E. J. Howson, chartered accountant employed by the commission to present a set-up of the financial affairs of all the companies in the industry, Mr. Glasco traced the history of Dominion Textiles from its inception in 1903 and differed sharply with a number of Mr. Howson's conclusions.

Half Japanese Budget For War

Army and Navy Appropriations for 1937-38 Total $400,000,000; Education Gets Less Than 5 Per Cent of $870,000,000 Total

Associated Press
Tokio, Nov. 27.—Army and navy appropriations composed about half of Japan's record-breaking 3,041,000,000 yen (about $870,000,000) budget for 1937-38, approved today by the cabinet.

Less than 5 per cent was allotted to education.

Despite the increase of about 73,000,000 yen ($19,564,000) over the current budget, appropriations for both branches of the armed forces were reduced by approximately 200,000,000 yen ($50,000,000).

The cuts left an aggregate appropriation for military expenditures of 1,406,000,000 yen (about $351,500,000). The army was given $205,000,000 and the navy $194,480,000.

Fund to Defend Slavery Charge

Associated Press
Jonesboro, Ark., Nov. 27.—District Attorney Jearge charged yesterday that eastern Arkansas planters had raised a $5,000 defence fund for Paul D. Peacher, who on Wednesday was sentenced to two years in jail and fined $3,500 on conviction of enslaving seven negroes.

Peacher, furnishing $5,000 bond fixed by Judge John E. Martineau, said he would leave the question of an appeal in the hands of his attorneys.

A federal court jury convicted him late Wednesday of violating an 1866 anti-slavery statute in arresting seven negroes and forcing them to work on his land after they had been given vagrancy sentences in justice of the peace court.

We Are Doing Nicely

CERTAIN CANADIAN NEWS-papers which do not seem to like the government in office at Ottawa or the government in office at Washington are doing their best to discount the value of the Canadian-United States reciprocal trading agreement which went into effect at the beginning of this year. Why this should be the case is difficult to understand. Every million dollars' worth of goods shipped out of the Dominion, and, of course, every million dollars' worth of goods imported into the country means employment under innumerable hands.

It is to be supposed that Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, or Mr. S. J. Hungerford, chairman of the Board of the Canadian National Railways, is worrying about the fact that at the end of September of this year Canada sold more to the United States by $40,000,000 over her sales of the previous twelve months, or that Canada bought from the United States commodities worth about $38,000,000 more than the corresponding period of a year ago? Of course not.

Goods moving out and goods moving in mean business for the railways and their employees. Here is a specimen of the skepticism manifested by anti-King government and anti-United States commercial relations:

So far the export trade of this country has not benefited to the extent expected as a result of the reciprocity pact with the United States. It is noted by the Department of Trade and Commerce that Canada's domestic exports to the United States for the nine months ending September 30 last showed a net increase of $21,511,139. What the department does not say is that the chief increases have been made in exports on which the American tariff remained unchanged. These were cattle, wood pulp, newspaper, nickel in matte or speiss, asbestos and asbestos sand and waste, which accounted for $17,223,670 of the increase. There have been minor increases as well as reduction in other exports, but the fact is that the chief increases in Canada's exports across the line have been in commodities on which there have been no tariff reductions under the trade convention which went into effect on January 1 last.

Above it is set out that "what the department does not say is that the chief increases have been made in exports on which the American tariff remained unchanged . . . these were cattle," and so on. What are the facts? Under the terms of the trade agreement entered into between the two countries the duty on cattle, 700 pounds and up, was reduced from three cents a pound to two cents a pound, or 33 1-3 per cent. True, the United States put a quota on the amount of cattle Canada could sell to the republic in any year; it was set at 155,799 head. This has now about been filled, so the three-cent-duty will go on until January 1, 1937, when the new quota will go into effect and the duty will automatically be dropped to two cents a pound on the 700-pound class of cattle.

It is interesting to note, by the way, that market conditions have enabled Canada to ship a larger number of cattle to Great Britain than last year. Here are the figures as they apply to the United Kingdom and the United States:

	1936	1935
Cattle to United Kingdom	32,411	5,213
Beef cattle to U.S.	138,134	93,446
Dairy cattle to U.S.	10,457	10,207
Calves to U.S.	45,058	4,140
Total	230,150	113,066

A fact set out by the Industrial and Development Council of Canadian Meat Packers in a recent issue of its publication is that "beef this year has been cheap compared with other meat products." Well, Canadian beef has gone over the border at a good rate. Next year, our natural market, because it is our next-door neighbor, probably will demand much more "beef on the hoof" from our prairie stock-breeders.

Science and Culture

WHEN WHAT MEN KNOW AND do is discussed upon a high intellectual plane, the question of the differences between science and culture is likely to arise.

Culture resembles science in having its roots in accurate knowledge and accurate thought. It is, a recent analysis in the British scientific journal, Nature, points out, more than knowledge or learning, because in concentrating on "the best that has been thought and known in the world," it becomes essentially a study of perfection. A small amount of learning is in some cases compatible with a high degree of culture.

Probably the best definition of a science is "a body of accurate knowledge," obtained by observation, often under experimental conditions, and sound reasoning. Success in scientific inquiry, the writer in Nature says, implies the possession of some of the higher human qualities, such as courage to look facts squarely in the face and to accept conclusions even when they are unpleasant or subversive of established practice and belief; a disciplined imagination; an open mind and a critical outlook; and, perhaps the greatest of all, the artist's sense of striving for perfection.

Culture is therefore considered to have close affinities to science, art and ethics. Matthew Arnold, the nineteenth-century apostle of culture, took the view that the pre-eminent part of culture is not "the scientific passion, the sheer desire, to see things as they are," but such ethical elements as love for one's neighbor, beneficence, the desire to remove human error, confusion and misery, and the noble aspiration to leave the world better and happier than we found it.

The British writer further analyzed the ancient conflict as follows: The distinguishing feature of science would thus appear to be accurate knowledge, and that of culture to be taste, judgment or discrimination between the true and the false, the good and the bad, the beautiful and the ugly. Were Matthew Arnold living today, he would readily acknowledge the benefits that science has conferred on humanity in the directions he indicated. Has it not exposed many causes of human error and dissipated confusion of thought? Has it not done wonders in preventing, alleviating and curing physical pain? Has it not provided man with the physical means toward a fuller and richer life? If science has not made man ethically better, that is not the fault of science, for it may be claimed that the golden rule of conduct—consideration for others—which is the foundation of morality and the non-material basis of happiness in communal life, is a valid and scientific deduction from the data of experience. Emotion being a more potent factor in conduct than knowledge, the contributions of science to "the good life" may compare unfavorably with those of art and religion, but it will be agreed that no conduct can in effect be good unless it conforms with the dictates of reason.

A Sinister Figure Passes

AT THE AGE OF EIGHTY-SIX, SIR Basil Zaharoff, Europe's millionaire mystery armaments salesman, lies dead at Monte Carlo. He takes his exit from the stirring scene of human events with the reputation of being accounted one of the wealthiest men in Europe. We are told that in recent years he has lived the life of a retired country gentleman, "ruling serenely at the Chateau Balincourt in France over a retinue of six personal Hindu attendants and a British secretary."

It is said that during the Great War, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George wanted to find out all he could about Zaharoff. The British Secret Service made the necessary inquiries and arrived at the supposed fact that he was born in Constantinople of a Russian father and a Greek mother. The father sent the youngster to England to get his education and he became an accomplished linguist. His father left him the little "nest egg" of $200,000. He had the gambling habit and lost most of it.

Soon after this Zaharoff "dabbled" in arms, shipbuilding, and oil enterprises. He then and there established the foundation of what is described as a "fabulous" fortune. British armament firms used Sir Basil as Sir Basil used them. He was described by a fluent Canadian writer not long ago as one of the "merchants of death." The term is simply explained. Sir Basil would sell, for example, a couple of submarines one day to one power, and the next day tell a rival power of the transaction, and suggest a similar deal. It is generally regarded that this was the way he became known as the "armaments king."

The dependents and relatives of more than 10,000,000 war dead will not weep many tears over the passing of Sir Basil Zaharoff. Nobody knows, of course, why the British Government knighted him. He goes out "unwept, unhonored and unsung."

Infants

TO STRAIGHTEN OUT A CUSTOMS ruling, setting the import duty on baby clothes, officials at an eastern port have finally decided the momentous question: What is an infant?

An infant, they decided after much head-scratching, is any child under six.

It is probably just as well to keep news of this decision from the country's mothers, or there likely will be a large, indignant outcry. For to mothers there apparently is no age limit for infants.

When her boy or girl first trots off to school, he seems as much a baby to her as when he yowled in his cradle. She even treats her grown-up sons and daughters as though they were infants.

Likewise, what husband who ever has had trouble locating his shirts and socks has not been called "a helpless infant" by the little woman?

Notes

A Japanese doctor says anyone can live to be 120. Providing, of course, he avoids jaywalking and Spain.

Sit-down strikes, which have now spread from France to this continent, are said to be the result of conditions workers just can't stand.

After all, the crow the magazine was forced to swallow on its presidential election straw votes, perhaps it should be titled The Literary Indigest.

Pioneer farmers of Alberta, according to The Financial Post, are among the worst sufferers from the Aberhart debt reduction legislation. Hundreds of these men and women retired after disposing of their farms either on a crop-sharing basis or taking mortgages in part payment. Some of them have now been practically wiped out by the Aberhart bill.

Add to the list of signs of better times: more new passenger motor cars were sold in British Columbia in the first eight months of 1936 than in the whole year, 1935. For the first nine months of this year the license records show 6,410 new passenger cars and 1,762 new commercial vehicles purchased, compared with 4,567 and 1,521 respectively in the corresponding period last year.

Loose Ends

How we do enjoy our pre-Christmas season, preparing for a Christmas festival—an old giant is recalled by his daughter—we think about small things—And perhaps it is best.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

CHRISTIAN FESTIVAL

AS THIS IS WRITTEN, it is just under a month to Christmas. It is a season of great joy and thanksgiving. It is a season of jubilation and goodwill. It is a season when Christian peoples unite in brotherly love, and launch new battleships and manufacture gas masks for civilian populations as rapidly as possible. It is a season when everybody feels a thrill of anticipation and delight at the approach of this sacred mid-winter religious festival, the anniversary of the Prince of Peace.

When two people meet together anywhere these days, observe how thrilled they are by the thought of Christmas less than a month away. "Well, Christmas will be here in less than a month. Isn't it hell?"

"Don't mention it, brother. I don't even want to think about it. It seems only yesterday that it was Christmas before. And I'm broke as usual."

"Yeah, and this year everybody'll expect more presents on account of the depression is over."

"Let's have a drink and forget it."

Yes, it is my opinion, after watching the phenomenon carefully, after interviewing innumerable persons, after weighing all the evidence, that the average man and woman today look forward to Christmas with horror and misgiving, as an inevitable evil which they can't escape.

The thing has got beyond us, has become such an expense and such a nuisance that people are growing desperate. One of these days there will be a revolt. People will refuse to make themselves miserable by trying to give their friends as expensive presents as their friends try to give them. They will suddenly decide to enjoy themselves at Christmas as their grandfathers did.

Yes, one of these days, people will start to make Christmas a Christian anniversary and a time of rejoicing again, instead of an occasion of universal worry, envy and regret. Probably this will take some time. Probably you won't live to see this grand emancipation.

WILSON AGAIN

THE LATE Woodrow Wilson's daughter is writing her intimate family recollections of him in The Saturday Evening Post, and they make good reading, if you are interested in history's larger tragedies. The case of Wilson shows you how insecure a reputation is in this swift-moving age, for here was a man who, for a moment exercised a greater moral sway over the world at large than any figure in modern times, and then died, a failed invalid and universally pronounced a failure.

No record of the war and the peace, from Wells's "Outline of History" onward, is complete without an explanation of why Wilson was hounded at Paris by Clemenceau, Lloyd George, and the other world politicians of Europe. On Wilson is laid all the blame for the false dawn of Versailles and all the turmoil of the post-war years, and for the moment his name is mud.

Yet there is a certain encouragement in the giant's fall. If he can perish so quickly, so can fellows like Hitler and Mussolini in nature's good time. The difference probably will be that their reputations will never come back, whereas, if and when the world recovers from its present state of dementia prostrata, Wilson may be remembered as one who tried, however foolishly, to save it from destroying itself. After the next world war the few shattered survivors may think that Wilson, after all, was right. Then it may well be too late.

TOO SMALL

A THOUGHTFUL CITIZEN writes me to say that he fears the people of this town devote too much thought to small things like civic politics. Their minds, he says, should be on larger international questions at a critical time like this.

He cannot understand how, when the world is passing through a great mysterious revolution, people can be bothered about our mayor and aldermen, our civic debt, and our grain elevator. It is a common mistake to scorn the small things of life in this way, for they are the natural food of men's thoughts and efforts. The world revolution is mysterious. No one properly understands it. Only a few minds can grasp its significance even in a vague way. It is not the kind of thing that men's minds, at their present state of development, were built for. Men's minds were built for such things as mayor and aldermen, civic debts and grain elevators. The public can understand them.

Even supposing you develop by education a public capable of understanding the world revolution and the weird forces that have lately been let loose upon civilization. Even supposing the public were to master and rationalize the economic system of the entire world, what would it amount to comparatively? You can see what it would amount to if you will look up into our clear Victorian sky one of these nights, while the stars are shining and Vancouver lies deep under its hazy, soft quilt of fog. Look up at the stars and see that nothing you can do on this speck of dust is of any importance whatever, comparatively.

You may, therefore, just as well interest yourself in our mayor and aldermen, our sinking funds and grain elevator. Compared with the universe at large, they are just as important as the world revolution. In fact, if we started to think too much about things of real importance, our feeble minds wouldn't stand the strain for many days. The happiest minds, and perhaps the wisest, usually find their happiness in some minute particles of life, in some microscopic field of knowledge and activity like fighting microbes or growing dahlias. The gods of the upper air, looking down at the world in its present state, probably find the spectacle of our mayor and aldermen, struggling with the city debt, no more absurd than the preposterous dictators of Europe struggling to turn this grain of dust into a new shambling. Probably they agree, if they can observe anything so small as this world, that our debt and grain elevator are the less absurd of the two.

Letters to The Editor

FROM R. H. B. KER

To the Editor:—If ever there was a time in this city's history when capable and intelligent men are required to chart the best course for the city to follow surely it is now. Anyone who has been in fairly close touch with the City Hall in recent years will acknowledge that no man knows more about the city's financial set-up than Mayor Leeming, and that from the time when he first became an alderman and chairman of the finance committee in 1922 the city has gained inestimable benefit from the sound policies which he has led in instituting. During his period as alderman in 1922 and 1923, and as mayor since 1932 no outstanding capital expenditures were initiated or incurred—he has had to derive his pleasure or satisfaction from civic office in guiding the city through the financial morass it was led into by councils of other years.

I am prompted to write to you now, Mr. Editor, solely on account of my reading in last night's Times a letter signed David Grievous Tuckwell in which the writer in a vein lacking any constructive suggestion seeks to pour ridicule on our mayor. He also suggests Mayor Leeming is an "ornament" and "not a worker." It is difficult to believe that any well-informed citizen would wittingly display such ignorance of the mayor's efforts; if it is facetiousness then it is entirely out of place.

Let's hope that by election day voters such as Mr. Tuckwell will all have a better appreciation of the civic asset they have in Mayor Leeming—a man who has devoted himself for years most capably, wholeheartedly, and tirelessly in civic affairs, and in whom we can make no mistake in continuing our confidence.

BEER PRICES

From The Cowichan Leader

In two speeches in the Legislature Mr. Savage called attention to the price of beer. The member for Cowichan-Newcastle wants three things out of beer, and no one can say that his contention is unreasonable. He wants cheaper beer for the consumer, a five-cent glass instead of a ten-cent one, and a standardized glass, so that the consumer who calls for a glass of beer may know what he is getting. He also wants a greater profit for the provincial government.

Today, according to the figures submitted by Mr. Savage, it costs the brewer $4.75 to manufacture a twenty-five-gallon barrel of beer. This beer is sold to the Liquor Board for $16.60, or a profit of 250 per cent. As there is a 4 per cent sales tax, the Liquor Board pays $17.60 and sells to the Hotel Keepers' Association for $23, a profit of 54.40. The association adds 10 per cent a barrel and sells to the beer parlors for $23.10. The beer parlor divides the beer into 480 glasses at ten cents each and receives $48.

This is the way it works out then: The brewer gets a profit of 250 per cent, the beer parlor a profit of 100 per cent, the government a profit of 31 per cent, and the consumer pays ten cents for a glass of beer that cost, in the first place, only a trifle over one cent. When there is so much profit to be made, it would appear that the government, which has the matter in its own hands, should be reaping a much larger share.

AUTUMN FRAGRANCE

Catherine Cate Coblentz in Yankee

It is not eyes alone that gather treasure. In swirls of gold and crimson from the wind, For like the bound, we take the final measure Of harvest fragrance—subtly changing, thinning, The essence from the leaves beneath our feet, The frost-touched apples that the meadow holds, The new-ploughed field, flung odors strangely sweet Against the pungency of marigolds.

These things we breathe against the winter days, These memories cherish until April wake, And once again along her springtime ways, New vials of beauty and of perfume break. God grant our hoarding last until the hour, We scent the yielding earth that holds a flower.

AGAINST PATRONAGE

From The Ottawa Journal

What looks like a body blow to the party spoils system in the United States has just been delivered by President Roosevelt. It is in the form of an executive order decreeing that in the future all appointments of postmasters must be after a competitive examination. In other words, the merit system. It shows that in the mind of Mr. Roosevelt—and no mind is more sensitive to the public thought—the people generally are against patronage.

A NATIONAL SCANDAL

From The London Free Press

The Duplessis government in Quebec is making a good move in the introduction of laws to prevent ballot stuffing in that province. Heavy penalties are being imposed for impersonation. INTEREST CUT EFFECTS

From The Brantford Expositor

The Calgary Women's Musical Club has had to abandon the bestowal of all scholarships because the funds, invested in Alberta bonds, have had the interest so deeply cut by Premier Aberhart and his associates that these benefactions will have to cease. There are only a few of the many instances of havoc resulting from Social Credit manipulations.

Letters to the Editor

AN ANNOYED TAXPAYER

To the Editor:—I have lost my home for which I paid in cash $4,200, and on which I have paid $2,000 in taxes.

So I feel pretty sore. I think Mayor Leeming's trip should have been denounced editorially. No city in the Dominion has ever sent a costly delegation on such a wild goose chase.

D. T.

SENSES "NO GOOD" ELEMENT

To the Editor:—In your editorial column Nov. 24, you refer to "another lord" etc. and that he should study the statute of Westminster.

I think the boot fits Canada, as I see it. From what I read, we in Canada are going to learn what the Statute of Westminster is.

There has been an element at work in the Dominion, that is no good to any country and they are well placed in this Dominion.

NOT COMMUNIST NOR FASCIST.

MALE AND FEMALE

To the Editor:—In reply to Mr. Tom Bateson's "Male and Female" created. He them, Adam and Eve. Equal? please note:

No sir, man is not the sun and woman the earth, he the above and she the below. The lighter and lower is his own dual, nature with which he must battle within "Man must work out his own salvation" (Philippians chapter II 12, 13). This applies equally to Eve or woman.

Man and woman, being the human expression, male and female the lower of animal.

It is his own inferior instincts such as selfishness, conceit, deceit, pride and presumption that lower him and not Eve.

She often tries to help him with little success. "Tis enough to make the angels weep."

EVE

SCHOOL EXPENDITURES

To the Editor:—Take the time to visit round the school at the corner of Quadra and Pinyan. There very much reduced school enrollment has just about everything to be desired, besides a new hard-surfaced tennis court for the use of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Thousands of dollars have been spent enlarging the grounds to take in reverted lots and produce a forest of six-inch posts, a very inspiring sight indeed, but making the adjoining property almost worthless. Many weeks have been spent constructing a rock garden and dinky little paths that are tucked away in the back-ground, their chief utility being that they provide a soft job to interested parties. The natural grass, wild flowers and oak trees that existed already, were just about as nice as any that could be desired.

Election time comes on apace; it is more than time that our people forget more sentiment, think of self-preservation, and vote for representatives who will fight consistently to give us taxpayers a fair deal, with a chance for the city to prosper, instead of adding unnecessary burdens and driving folks into the adjoining municipalities.

JUST ANOTHER VICTIM.

LESSON FROM A BIG VICTORY

To the Editor:—The voters of the United States have approved of the man-that-spent-the-billions, on work and major projects, instead of letting money lie idle and the people starving. Wealth, in the last analysis, is the things for public use and enjoyment, that a nation possesses; with some minor forms in private ownership.

I have read in England of a reported interview with a South American million-dollar heiress. She said that the workers in England and many parts of Europe were equally as well off, if not better, than she and her likes were in her country, as these countries are built up. Only twenty miles outside South American cities there was nothing but bush, and it would take centuries to build up her country.

Any government that supports, or carries out such major projects, as building the West Coast road, or the Seymour Narrows bridge, and connects the island with the mainland, would certainly retain equal public approval, instead of tinkering with poverty and petty forms of relief.

J. MULLARD,

CHRISTMAS ISLAND

To the Editor:—On your marine page of issue of Monday, November 22, you state that Admiral Sir William Wiseman hoisted the British flag on Christmas Island in 1888. The use of the above flag-rank must be a slip, because according to the Navy Lists, Sir W. Wiseman, Bart., never reached a higher rank than captain, which rank was dated June 30, 1882, and his name is not found in either the active or the retired indexes after the year 1892.

He commissioned H.M. corvette Comblie (built Sheerness, 1862, 1,440 horsepower, 1,420 tons, composite hull and barque rigged) at Sheerness on January 27, 1886, for the Pacific station, and she was recommissioned at Hongkong, February 18, 1890, after about two years on the Pacific. In 1888 the commander-in-chief of the ships on the station was Rear-Admiral Sir Michael Culme Seymour, Bart., who flew his flag in H.M. armored frigate Triumph, Flag-Captain H.

RIVALS "YOUNG CITIZENS"

To the Editor:—"Cynical" is utterly wrong in his innuendos. He is either totally ignorant concerning the organization he writes about, or guilty of a deliberate attempt to belittle us.

For his benefit, and the benefit of your readers, may I state the following: We are strictly democratic. We oppose all dangerous forms of extremism as conducive to civil war. We support the League of Nations. We oppose war and believe that peace may best be assured by education of the world's peoples and, until that education shall become effective, by armed vigilance, so that no nation dare make war upon another.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we are strictly self-supporting, with no outside interests. We keep our identity secret because we do not want our newly-formed organization to be added to the tragic list of groups that have foundered as a result of Communist penetration. Proof of the sterling quality of our organization is provided by the steadily booming membership list, upon which I am proud to have placed my name. We have a flourishing youth branch that is now rivaling the Young Citizens' League and Canadian Guard.

REACTION TO MR. HARTNELL

To the Editor:—Were I P. Hartnell I'd retire to Spain or Italy, or some other country where that post-pourri (politics, hate and slaughter) are artificially conceived as religion and as a divine mission.

I should give up thinking, simply because I could not endure the thought of truth, goodness and fair-play.

I should give up thinking, simply because I would feel like a cat on hot bricks under the British Constitution and because I could not endure the thought of a happy people within the empire, mercifully enlightened, independent and unafraid. I would send a gun to De Valera every Christmas, and a stiletto to Mussolini every Easter.

In short, let things be as true as they may. I would have nothing of veneration—nor reverence, unless there was some killing. And since I should expect a special seat in Heaven, I should become so perfect in renunciation that the teachings of the Bible would have no effect on me.

COUNCIL CANDIDATES

To the Editor:—The ratepayers of this city are becoming alive to the question of what, or what not, to do in the way of bettering conditions from a municipal standpoint. In my opinion, the election for council honors will prove to be very eventful.

I happened to read an interview with Alderman Walter Luney. No doubt he has been a busy man on committees—so have the other aldermen. But whether the councillors have done their best for the city is a matter of opinion. But why, oh, why, after all these years of attempted management of the people's affairs, blame it all on the provincial government.

Further, Alderman Luney states that every man has taken a cut except bondholders. Will he tell us what cut, if any, the aldermen took, and to what extent their cut helped the city finances?

As for his opinion on bondholders submitting to cuts, how would he feel, and act, if after completing a building contract if the owner asked his firm to accept a lower price than the one accepted? Surely the principle is the same.

I am not a bondholder, but I am, and have been, a ratepayer here for more than twenty years. I am of the opinion that we should face the facts of our standing as a city, fairly and squarely, and as far as I am personally concerned, it is my intention to support candidates on what I consider their merits, not on published interviews with the press.

THREE QUESTIONS

To the Editor:—1. Do the Government of British Columbia consider the people are more weak-willed than other nations? If not why do they have all the silly instructions in regard to the drink question which no other sane nation would put up with?

2. Why do the government pander to one class of people "the labor class"? I learn that beer parlors have to be kept open thirteen hours per day even in the country and no one is about or likely to come in, i.e., 10:30 a.m. till 11:30 p.m. in case the "Navy" (as we call them in England) should want a drink then. So the poor landlord must be kept up until midnight or lose his license. And for the man who does not drink beer but prefers a glass of wine or a whiskey and soda—he must not be considered at all. He surely must be a "Fascist." What the poor Italians do I don't know. Most of them only drink wine from babies; nothing would persuade an Alpine or Bernese to drink beer so far as I have ever seen.

3. Why do not the B.C. government also provide a lot of nurses to take their people about and say, "You must not do this or that"?

Plan Insurance Advisory Board

Victoria Fire Underwriters Hear Address by Veteran Agent at Meeting

A plan has been drawn up for the establishment of an insurance advisory board in the province, the Victoria-District Fire Insurance Agents' Association was informed at its regular meeting on Wednesday.

The plan is in line with an amendment to the Insurance Act passed at the last session of the House, empowering the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to make provision for the establishment of such a board to assist the superintendent of insurance.

In connection with this scheme, a deputation traveled through the interior of the province recently and enlisted the whole-hearted support of agents. Petitions were also circulated and widely signed.

Later a deputation of Victoria and mainland agents called on the Attorney-General and received a promise of immediate support for the advisory board plan. The interview was arranged by J. H. Forester, M.P.P.

ADDRESS BY VETERAN

George L. Schetky, one of the oldest fire insurance agents in the province, told the meeting something of the development of the business in British Columbia.

It was forty years since he started as an insurance agent in Nanaimo, said Mr. Schetky. Since that time much development had taken place, and there was a great difference between the old rate book No. 3 and the present system of rating.

Insurance men throughout Canada owe a great deal to R. J. Wickham of Montreal, the chairman of the Canadian Federation of Insurance Agents, he said. Much had been accomplished through his efforts, but there were still unclimbed heights. Apathy and indifference had to be overcome and that was where an agents' qualification law would help. In the province of Quebec such a law had been tried and it had not only weeded out the inefficient but it had spurred on the deserving agent.

The National Association of Agents in the United States was a power for good and now embraced 12,000 members representing over 60,000 individual agents. Business development, general research and co-operation were parts of its programme.

At the conclusion of Mr. Schetky's address a vote of thanks was moved by Frank Jordan and seconded by B. Russell Ker.

Short addresses were given by D. A. S. McGregor, district manager of the B.C.I.A., and by Fire Chief Alex Munroe.

F. Brooke J. Stephenson presided.

COLWOOD

The Women's Auxiliary to St. John's Church will hold their annual sale of work on Wednesday afternoon, December 2, in Colwood Hall. The sale will be opened by Rev. A. M. Acheson-Lyle.

Those in charge of stalls will be Mrs. H. Parker, Mrs. G. A. Harris, Miss James, Mrs. R. W. Robinson, Mrs. T. Milburn, Mrs. J. W. Little, Mrs. M. Gunnesson, Mrs. H. E. Stevens, Mrs. C. P. Matheson, Mrs. A. Godfrey, Mrs. Terry and Miss Scott.

LUXTON

The weekly old-time dance in Luxton Hall Wednesday evening was well-attended. Tombola winners were Eileen Jones, Mary McKay, Kaye Harper, Arthur Turner, Stan Wilkins and Ted Smith. Special dances were given by pupils of Sonya Slavina, the dancers being Babe Chambers, Iris and Doris Brooks.

GARDEN CITY

Mrs. A. P. Fryatt, Snowdrop Avenue, was tea hostess on Wednesday afternoon. A musical programme was presented, including vocal solos, "The Slave Song" and "Smiles," by Mrs. Punter; "At Dawning" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," by Mrs. T. Floyd; also violin selections, "March Militaire" and "Reverie," by Master Keith Alexander. Miss Elsie Fryatt was accompanist.

Pat J. Mulcahy Kinsmen Head

Pat J. Mulcahy was elected president of the Victoria Kinsmen Club at the annual meeting yesterday evening in the Empress Hotel. He succeeds Cecil U. Luckhart, president for the last year.

E. B. Whittington was named secretary, Howard Tyrrell treasurer, and Dr. Percy Rumball was made registrar. The business meeting was followed by the presentation of golf prizes to Dr. Rumball and Joe McAllister, winners of first and second places, and George Gurt, handicap winner.

On December 12 the club members will be guests at a social evening at the home of Herbert Shade at Killarney Lake.

The Economy Car in the Low-Price Field

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1937

BECAUSE it is the economy car in the low-price field as well as the most beautiful Ford ever designed, the Ford V-8 is more than ever The Universal Car.

It will appeal to families who consider economy. To salesmen who drive their own cars and wish to pare expenses. To farmers who need a rugged inexpensive car for bad roads in all weathers. To fleet owners who must hold mileage costs down. To women whose cars are a part of the daily round of family or business duties.

The 1937 Ford powered with the improved 85-horsepower V-8 engine is for those who want maximum performance with exceptional economy. It delivers the flashing speed and acceleration for which the Ford V-8 engine has become famous on the road. Yet improved carburetion enables it to give its thrilling performance with unusually good gasoline mileage.

For those who want maximum economy with good performance, there is the new 60-horsepower V-8 engine. It offers the smoothness and quiet you expect of a V-8—even at speeds up to 70 miles an hour—with gasoline mileage so high that it creates an entirely new standard of economy in modern motor car operation. The smaller engine also makes possible a lower price.

Beyond the choice in engines, the 1937 Ford car is one size—one wheelbase. Its appearance is modern and streamlined. Body-structure is all steel. New Easy-Action Safety Brakes give faster, smoother stops with about one-third less pedal pressure. It is engineered throughout for the quiet you expect of a quality car. It is a big, roomy car—with extra space in the body where you want it, not under the hood.

You are invited to see the New Ford V-8 Cars for 1937 at the showroom of your Ford dealer.

FEATURES OF THE 1937 FORD V-8 CARS

APPEARANCE—Distinctive modern design. Headlamps streamlined into fender aprons. Modern lid-type hood hinged at the back. Larger luggage space and spare tire concealed within body. Interiors entirely new in design. A slanting V-type windshield that opens in all closed cars.

POWER—Choice of the improved 85-horsepower V-8 or the new 60-horsepower V-8 engine.

BRAKES—You want two things in a modern braking system. Dependability—and soft pedal action. The Easy-Action Safety Brakes in the new Ford give you both, with "the safety of steel from pedal to wheel." Cable and conduit control type. Self-energizing—car momentum is used to help apply the brakes.

About one-third less pedal pressure is required to stop the car.

SAFETY—All-steel body construction. Not an ounce of wood used for structural strength. Frame structure is all steel—sheathed with steel panels, top, sides and floor. All are welded into a single steel unit of great strength. Safety Glass all around at no extra charge.

COMFORT AND QUIET—By every modern standard of design, the 1937 Ford is a big, roomy car. Extra space in the body where you want it—not taken up by the engine under the hood. Comfort of the Ford Centre-Poise Ride is further increased by smoother action of the long-tapering springs with new pressure lubrication. New methods of mounting body and engine, and other refinements, make this a quieter car.

Today, these healthy Dionne Quins had Quaker Oats

Keen Appetites Like Yvonne's depend in large part on children getting enough Vitamin B to brace up appetite, keep from losing zest for food. Quaker Oats is rich in Vitamin B.

What do the Dionne Quins have to do with me?

Doctors say we all need Vitamin B for nerves and digestion... Get it daily in Quaker Oats

WARNING: Quaker Oats, oatmeal and the Red Arrowed, etc. never sold in bulk or bags, only in clean, carefully sealed packages.

QUAKER OATS...rich in Nature's Vitamin for bracing-up Digestion, Nerves, and Appetite

LOST APPETITE
"NO INTEREST IN MEAL TIME!"

"MY appetite had gone—I just didn't want to eat. I was losing strength, just fading away, when, on the Doctor's advice, I started on Fellows' Syrup. My appetite came right back and I was really eager for mealtime again."

Fellows' Syrup helps put a sharp edge on dull appetites. The calcium, iron, quinine, phosphorus and other important minerals in this 60-year-old tonic help to improve assimilation and tone you up all around.

The tonic-builder that 3 generations have relied upon. Fellows' Syrup is widely imitated. Look for the name "Fellows" on the wrapper.

Mothers Hear Dr. H. Anderson

Dr. Henrietta Anderson led a lively discussion with a group of mothers this week at the Friendly Help Welfare Association office. Questions were asked as to how to improve children's table manner, how to make children obey quickly and how far one should allow a child to make his own decisions.

Many other points came out in the course of the discussion, and the mothers appreciated the discovery that other parents were going through the same difficulties. Dr. Anderson suggested practical ways of meeting these problems and clearly demonstrated that a mother's work demanded intelligence, understanding and sacrifice.

This was the third of a series of meetings being held under the auspices of the case committee of the Friendly Help Welfare Association. The next will be held on Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m.

Officers Hosts at Dance In Mess

Armories Party Is Gay Affair; Lieut.-Governor There

Members of the composite officers' mess entertained a large number of guests at a delightful dance at the Armories last night, officers of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals (N.P.), Royal Canadian Engineers (N.P.), Canadian Machine Gun Corps, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps (N.P.) and the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps (N.P.) acting as hosts.

Major Hugh Allan, president of the mess, and Mrs. Allan welcomed the guests, among whom were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber.

The affair was held in the mess, the rooms being attractively decorated with autumn flowers and foliage arranged in the various handsome silver trophies. The Canadian Scottish five-piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing, and supper was served from buffets centered with flowers and matching tapers in silver candelabra.

Those invited were: His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber, Brigadier D. J. MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald, Col. H. C. Greer and Mrs. Greer, Major K. C. Aged Actress Died Yesterday

Associated Press. Montreal, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, "grand old lady of the stage," died Wednesday afternoon at her home here. She was ninety-one.

Mrs. Whiffen had been ill for more than a year, during which she was confined to her Blue Ridge Mountain home, to which she retired after more than thirty years on the stage.

She emerged from her retirement six years ago to appear in a benefit performance of "Trelawney of the Wells" in New York.

The body will be taken to Washington for cremation and the ashes will be sent to England, where Mrs. Whiffen was born in 1845.

MIDGETS MARRIED

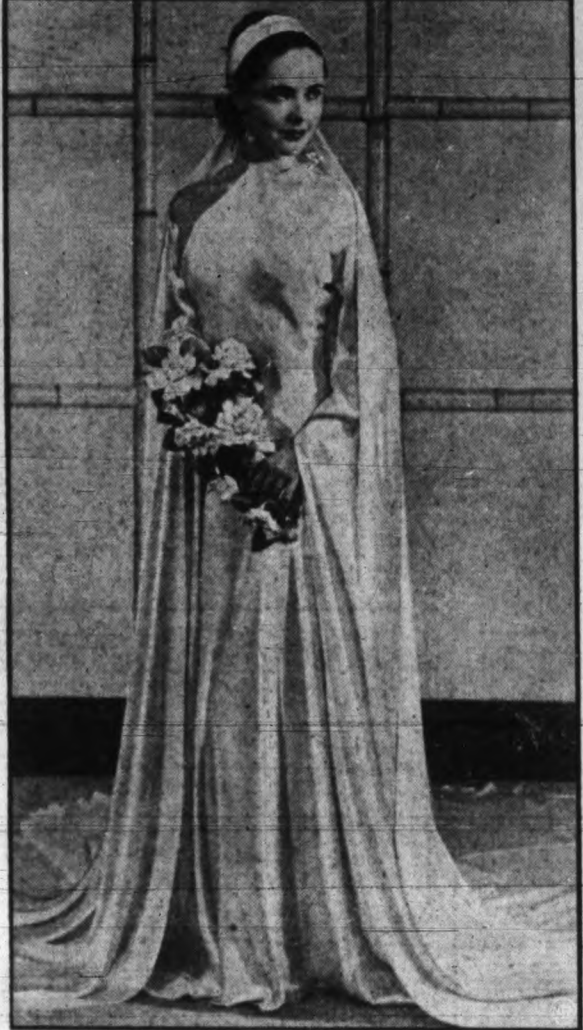

Bethany, Okla., Nov. 27 (Associated Press).—Bethany's "tiniest" adults were married in the Church of the Nazarene before an estimated 700 persons today.

The bride, Miss Floy Dell Hough, an evangelistic singer, is three feet eleven and a half inches tall; the bridegroom, Warren Todd Hughes, a shoemaker, is four feet one and a half inches.

Club to Hear Dr. W. E. Harper

An address on "The Universe Around Us," illustrated by interesting slides, will be given by Dr. W. E. Harper, director of the Astrophysical Observatory, before the Women's Canadian Club, on Tuesday afternoon, December 1, at 2:45 o'clock. Mrs. E. Ridgway will be the singer, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Warr.

Blushing Bridal Gown

The last doubts about marriage vanish when the bride-to-be slips on this glamorous fall wedding gown of blush pink crown rayon satin, a creation of Helen Johnson, young designer. Matching fabric is used for the veil. The skirt is scalloped around the bottom to give a petal-like effect. Trailing drapes from the sleeves and the veil which goes around the head, bandeau fashion, and is divided in two at the back, add to the petal design. The bride carries a sheaf of pink camellias.

Society

Friends of Miss Marie Murphy, R.N., will regret to learn that she is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Captain and Mrs. H. A. Hanson of Alberni have returned to their home up the West Coast after a short holiday spent in Seattle.

Miss Elizabeth McIntosh entertained at the tea hour on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Newport Avenue, Oak Bay.

Mrs. J. H. Norton, 1385 Manor Road, is visiting relatives in Seattle for a few days, and expects to return to Victoria early next week.

Mrs. Ronald Buchanan of Vancouver, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lorne Campbell, 814 Charles Street, will return tomorrow to her home on the mainland.

This afternoon at her home on Constance Avenue, Mrs. Morgan Smith entertained at the tea hour and was assisted by Mrs. A. S. Watson, who presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Arthur Fowler of Vancouver came over from the mainland this afternoon and is the guest of Rev. John Robson and Miss Robson, Prospect Place, Oak Bay.

Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Logan Avenue, has staying with her for the weekend her niece, Miss Isabel Anderson, who is attending the University of Washington, Seattle.

Mrs. R. D. Gill of Vancouver, who has been spending the last few weeks in Victoria with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Worwick, Head Street, will return to her home on the mainland on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Ockenden, young Victoria pianist, will play during the tea hour at the Empress Hotel tomorrow the following numbers: "Nocturne in F Sharp" (Chopin), "La Chasse" (Paganini-Liszt), "Etude in F Sharp Major" (Stravinsky), "Noel" (Balfour Gardiner).

Twenty tables were in progress last night at the bridge party held by the Victoria Conservative Association in the rooms, Campbell Building. The prizes were presented by Senator R. H. Green. Refreshments were served during the evening, and the committee in charge included Mrs. W. C. Moreby, Mrs. M. A. Haslam, Mrs. A. M. Hammett, Mrs. G. W. Edgar, Mrs. William Higgins, Mrs. M. Rolston, Mrs. M. Lismore and Mrs. J. Taylor.

Hon. Percy Pease, Minister of Lands and Deputy Premier in the Queensland legislature, with Mrs. Pease and their niece, Miss Margaret Quirk, arrived on the R.M.S. Niagara today from Australia and are guests at the Empress Hotel. They were accompanied by Mr. Victor Greening, Director of Forests for Queensland. They will remain on Vancouver Island for several days and will spend some time in the United States before returning to Australia, via Victoria, in March.

Beaux-Arts Has Birthday

The Beaux-Arts Society celebrated its fifth birthday with an attractive programme, followed by dancing, at the Crystal Garden last night. Miss Helen Sweetland, the president, was in the chair and welcomed the special guests and patrons of the society.

Final arrangements for the annual Snow Ball Frolic to be held in December were discussed and tickets distributed.

The programme opened with a one-act play "In the Darkness," a tragedy, directed by Willson Knowlton. The cast was as follows: Bess, Betty Petch; Lizzy, Barbara Lloyd-Young; Arch, Gordon Fraser; and Nate, Willson Knowlton. Miss Doreen McGregor was the prompter.

"Dresden China Dolls" was the artistic dance presented under the direction of Mrs. Jack Barracough with Maureen Grute, as Columbine; Nan Eve, Harlequin; Betty Petch, old fashioned lady; B. Pennock, old fashioned gentleman; Eileen Regan, shepherdess; and Lorraine Pendry, shepherd. Arranged on pedestals, the various figures came to life and danced, then resumed their original pose. A comic song and monologue by Bill Dreaper, accompanied by Leonard Acres, concluded the programme.

During supper, Mrs. Walter C. Nichol cut the birthday cake with its quota of candles and wished the club many happy returns and a successful year.

Guard Babies In Film Work

Associated Press. Hollywood, Nov. 27.—A group of English newspapermen, sent to Hollywood to find out the working conditions for babies in films, were informed that the California state law requires:

1—A registered nurse must accompany the child and its mother from the time they leave home until they return.

2—An infant must be brought to and from the studio in a fumigated limousine.

3—A qualified welfare worker must be with the baby at all times it is in the studio.

4—An infant must spend not more than two hours in a studio, of which only twenty minutes may be spent under the lights.

Coronation Plans Are Made

Hon. Vincent Massey Holds Seats On Route For Canadians

Canadian Press

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—A large number of applications for seats from which to view the Coronation procession in London next May have been received by Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain, and it has been decided to close the subscription list for seats at the High Commissioner's disposal on January 1. Announcement to this effect was made today from the office of the Prime Minister.

Seats are being erected along the procession route by the United Kingdom government and certain sections have been allotted at cost to high commissioners of the various Dominions. As it is expected the demand may exceed the supply it has been decided all applications for accommodations at the disposal of the Canadian High Commissioner must be made before the end of the year.

It was further announced applications for these seats must be made individually and that none will be considered if made through an agency, institution, booking office or business firm.

Canadians wishing to obtain reservations in the sections allocated to the Canadian High Commissioner will apply direct to his secretary at Canada House in London. While the Prime Minister's announcement stated the seats would be disposed of "at cost" no indication was given of the price.

No details have been announced of arrangements being made for an official Canadian delegation to the Coronation.

It is expected that soon after Parliament assembles early in January there will be consultations between the government and all other parties on Coronation plans and also on the question of early prorogation so there will be no difficulty in completing the legislative programme by the end of April.

Weddings

ROBLEY-FORRESTER

At a quiet ceremony at the Church of Our Lord on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. A. de B. Owen solemnized the marriage of Mr. Victor R. Robley.

The bride wore a wine-colored crepe ensemble, with matching accessories and a silver fox fur, with a corsage bouquet of carnations and roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. W. Brakes, who wore a brown velvet ensemble and matching accessories. Mr. W. Brakes was groomsmen.

Following the service a small reception was held at the home of the bride, and the happy couple left later for a tour of Seattle and the Sound cities. They will make their home in Victoria.

St. John's Guild To Hold Bazaar

Bishop H. E. Sexton will open the St. John's Guild Christmas Bazaar to be held in the Y.W.C.A. Bannard Street, on Saturday afternoon, December 5, from 2 till 6 o'clock.

A varied assortment of articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale, also home-cooking and candy. Tea will be in charge of the Women's Auxiliary and an attractive musical programme has been arranged for the tea hour.

Rev. O. R. V. Bolster and Mrs. Bolster, who have recently arrived in Victoria will be present. Mr. Bolster has been appointed assistant to Canon F. A. P. Chadwick, and it is hoped that all members and friends of St. John's Church will take this opportunity to meet them.

Ban Americans In Pantomime

Associated Press

London, Nov. 27.—The Ministry of Labor refused Barbara Vernon, an American actress, a permit to appear in the pantomime "Mother Goose" here, because "no American girl should be allowed to take such a typically British role as that of principal girl in a pantomime."

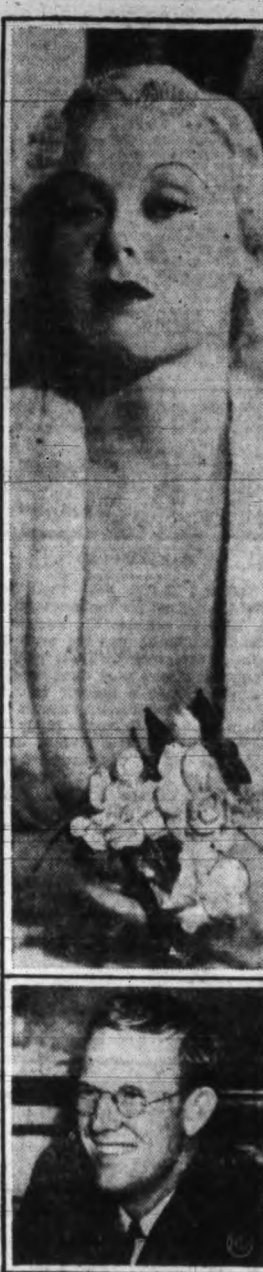

Barbara, who scored a success in the recent West End revival of "No, No, Nanette," will be allowed to accept other engagements on the English stage—but not in pantomime.

Time Magazine Barred by Japan

Associated Press

Tokio, Nov. 27.—The issue of Time magazine, United States news weekly, for November 9, was banned from Japan today on grounds its contents committed lese majesty against Emperor Chang Teh of Manchukuo. All copies were seized.

Film Romance

Hollywood added another film romance to its list with the announcement of the engagement of Toby Wing, top photo, blond screen actress, and "Pinky" Tomlin, lower photo, actor and song writer. Mrs. Wing is a native of Richmond, Va. Tomlin was born in Durant, Okla.

I.O.D.E. to Join With Council

Following an outline of the aims and objects of the Victoria Council of Social Agencies, given by Mrs. Kenneth Barr before the Municipal Chapter I.O.D.E. at its meeting last evening, the chapter decided to affiliate with the council.

Mrs. J. W. Hudson reported attending the organizations meetings of the council and Mrs. George Miles and Mrs. Kyrie Symons were appointed delegates to attend its next meeting.

Mrs. William Ellis presided and twelve chapters were represented. Mrs. W. K. Anderson, a visitor from The Pas, Manitoba, was welcomed by the regent and members.

Mrs. F. R. Wright, delegate to the Victoria Branch of the League of Nations Society, brought in a report. Mrs. F. P. Beckett told of the progress being made by the deaf and dumb student in whom the chapter is interested. A request was made for a chapter to volunteer to adopt a school at Fanny Bay. So far no chapter has responded.

Mrs. A. K. C. Phillips, organizing secretary, that the charter of the Commodore Broughton Chapter had been handed in, this group having disbanded.

Mrs. Cashmore, the standard bearer, reported the standard having been carried at the Remembrance Day service, and on that day the Royal Bride Chapter decorated the Cross of Sacrifice. Mrs. J. T. Jones, Echoes secretary, told of the tea held recently in honor of the Provincial Echoes secretary, Mrs. Grant.

Mrs. Miles, child welfare convener, thanked Gonzales Chapter for its donation of clothing. Mrs. C. W. Flumb, soldiers' grave convener, spoke of the need for donations to be sent in before Christmas. Gonzales Chapter will place a wreath on the Cross of Sacrifice at Christmas and the Municipal Chapter decided to place one on the Cenotaph.

James Barker Has Birthday Party

On Tuesday the 24th inst. Mr. James Barker of Holly Hodge farm, Wellington Road, well known to many in Saanich and Victoria, on Tuesday, November 24, celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday. Throughout the day many friends of the district called at his home to convey felicitations. In the evening his daughter, Miss A. Barker, was hostess on the occasion of a gathering of the family and relatives.

An outstanding item of the celebration took place when Mr. Barker both recited and sang a solo.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDERD

Undoubtedly the most comfortable child to live with would be one who, when told what to do, did it immediately. But we have to remember that if children minded all of the time, they would hardly advance beyond the infant stage of development. In order to grow and flourish one has to think up and carry out original kinds of behavior.

Most children mind well if the parent is not too exacting and demanding. But once the parent has set herself a goal of "perfect obedience," she does not know where to stop. Everything she says becomes important and the fact that the child disregards a command, however inconsequential, seems to her a vital matter.

CHILDREN PARENTS

"He just has to learn to mind," she gives as her excuse for constant correction and punishment.

To feel that one cannot be thwarted in one's commands is just as childish an attitude for the parent as for a child. There is ammunition enough for any number of parental commands in just the ordinary home situations, getting a child to meals, putting him to bed, keeping him protectively dressed and out of physical dangers. If a parent concentrates only on obedience as it is related to these subjects, she will have plenty of practice in getting the child to mind.

CHILD FIGHTS BACK

But parents get to the point where they can't be crossed. They think so much of the child's behavior is just silly, or unnecessary, or plain inconvenient or annoying. They set out to make this over, along the lines of their own ideas, and then wonder why the child cries, whines, grows cantankerous or incorrigible.

Any child, any age, knows when he is being subjected to treatment that is preventing him from growing up to be an individual, and the weapons for parrying such treatment come right along with it.

Our leader on "Obedience and Discipline" deals specifically with some of the situations all parents meet. Send a self-addressed 3-cent stamped envelope to Myrtle Meyer Elderd of the Your Baby and Mine department of this newspaper.

AROUND THE TOWN

With Mistress Pepys

Thursday, November 26.

'Tis a delight to wake this fine morning and see the sun doth shine. Methinks 'twere town be favored mightily.

Descending to the breakfast table, find Samuel be ready for early jaunt to town. He doth plan to go within E. A. Morris Limited goods shoppe at 1116 Government Street, for he doth find from reading their fine booklet this be the place for all goods smokers' needs. He do have in mind to inspect the perfect imported tobaccos from the Old Land. Then, too, there be many fine pipes within this shoppe. . . Dunhill Bruyeres that ever sport a wee white spot . . . and goodie Kennett Briars from old London Town. Cigars, too . . . what perfect aroma . . . cigarettes in perfect gift boxes and cabinets . . . the very best—brands be here.—E. A. Morris Limited still have a few booklets . . . 'tis wise to have one to study at one's leisure.

Ever Samuel doth desire at this season to visit Period Arts Shoppe . . . so we do stroll to 801 Government Street. At once find something new. 'Tis great display of Castilian marble . . . so delicate in vein . . . yet withal so solid and secure. Bits there be of all sizes, hand-carved with such patience in perfect semblance of goodie birds and animals. Sleepy-eyed owls, all veined in warm brown tints . . . bright-hued cockatoos . . . spirited white horses. These be all goodie book-ends . . . but do find ash tray sets, cigarette boxes . . . a wide round bit of softest green, 'tis table size ash receiver that do have widest tiger carved upon it. These bits of Castilian Marble be of exquisite mold and 'tis amazing how such perfection be priced so reasonable!

Come out upon the street to meet Mistress Peg. She be very irritable. It doth seem there be a dance but few days off but as yet no wain doth offer niece Peg an escort. Methinks if Andrew Foulkes did along at such minute he might be the innocent victim.

Quickly on to Diggon-Ribben's Limited, at 1208 Government Street for Mistress Castlemain doth tell me but yesterday there be goods offer here embossed gold initial on fine notepaper of $1.50 or more. Finde perfect display of goodie English notepaper at Diggon's in fascinating boxes and handsome conundrum styles. One doth attract me over much. 'Tis box of soft green imitation leather . . . perfect for holding kerchiefs later on. This—with gold initial on the smooth fine notepaper be gift that doth please most any person. See many other boxes, too, that do attract me mightily.

Leave Samuel upon the street corner deep in conversation with my Peg. 'Twould not surprise me if I do find he doth plan to escort this gay lass himself if no other swain be found. Samuel doth ever love to trip gay measure and he doth make brave figure in white stock and tails.

'Did hear not long since that Barber and Holdcroft Limited, at 1623 Douglas Street be very well known now for the fine quality of china they do import from Merry England. Always this shoppe doth make me think of goodie toys . . . now it doth also have fine china . . . what service this be. Take few minutes to peek at their display. Finde good tea and dinner sets and many breakfast sets there be . . . in most fascinating designs. This shoppe doth specialize in open patterns that do be easily added to or replaced at will. Finde perfect English dinner service of deep cream with gold etched edge . . . and many other patterns there be.

Have pleasant visit within the Posy Shop at 623 Fort Street. 'Tis to send great box of fine berries holly to some friends in far Orient. This week-end be last chance to have such gift arrive before Christmas Day. Posy Shop windows be very gay with great baskets of deep red carnations and feathery green Yerns. So tempting these be I do immediately choose bright flowers to send to Samuel's mother. She be kept within the house these days with aching joints. 'Tis hard to stay alone these bright clear days . . . methinks flowers do ever brighten up those but in or those who be sick within the hospital. 'Tis gift most any person do finde pennies for and it doth bring so much of pleasure with it. Do pick up dainty fern with long feathery fronds to place within my own window box.

But next to Posy Shop . . . at 621 Fort Street be dainty little place that do have within its doors many goodie suggestions for Christmas. 'Tis F. S. Martin, the jeweler. Such wealth of exciting bits be here for gifts! Tables be arranged at different prices to suit all money bags . . . so easy to see at a glance what one doth wish or can afford. Stand long before great shelf of flower vases . . . some great . . . some small . . . of many modern designs and in gay bright colors to add enchantment to the corners of many rooms. There be fine bits of Coventry china . . . in plain deep cream color . . . all with felt pads upon the base. Toilet sets I see in colors to fit all dainty boudoirs and at prices but amazing! Mister Martin doth say a small bit of money doth hold any article until Christmas time.

Home—to find Mistress Peg bustling with excitement. Tony Lovelace doth telephone and she do go to the ball with this handsome swain. Steel quick glance at Samuel to find he doth look over grim. Think quickly or the rustling taffeta I do buy and hide away for just such time and in breathless whisper do make wish I too might go to the ball.

Niece Peggy doth whirl me quickly to Samuel's chair and believe 'tis their very own suggestion. Myself—content to listen without words, for 'tis pleasant to think I do soon trip a measure once again with Samuel.

'SALADA' TEA

is delicious

By Robert Edward Dickson

(Copyright, 1936)

In Chicago, she encounters BRUCE McDOUGALL, a stranger who volunteers a slight service. Bruce is also a passenger on the plane Maria takes to return home. A few weeks later she sees him again. Bruce, an artist, has decided to make his home in the suburb.

Meanwhile, TONY STELLICI, restaurant chef, suspects his brother, CARLO, of being involved in the holdup and finds some of the loot in Carlo's home. Carlo and his confederates make plans to rob the bank.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XV

Tony Stellici, with a sick heart, realized that he had bungled the job which clearly had faced him when he first suspected Carlo's complicity in the Dog Wagon holdup. His immediate concern had been to recapture, as a matter of honor, the property stolen before his eyes from the restaurant customers. In his efforts to this end, and subsequently, he had acted in secret because of consideration of his father, fearing the effect of the shock upon the invalid should he learn that his other son was a thief. Having regained and mailed anonymously to the police his brother's share of the things stolen at the Dog Wagon, Tony had felt himself balked, he did not know how to proceed without publicity harmful to his father.

But as the same four men who had robbed his customers had since committed other holdups in Bobbs Neck—the Henderson bridge party and the Canfield home—Tony realized the effects of his failure. Somehow he should have stopped Carlo at the outset.

On the day after Carlo's visit to New York, Tony awakened, as usual, soon after noon and, greeting his father, prepared for his breakfast, served by the landlady along with his father's lunch. The village waitress nurse was to call this afternoon on a regular visit, and after their meal Tony opened a book to read to his father until her arrival.

Since Marcia Canfield, as part of her contribution to the welfare work, frequently accompanied the nurse on her rounds, Tony was not surprised when the two arrived together this afternoon.

Nor, of course, was he surprised when Marcia, while the nurse efficiently began her tasks, told him of the mysterious recovery of her ring, the ruby ring that had belonged to her mother, taken by the Dog Wagon bandits and returned to her that morning by the police.

Tony pretended surprise, and stammered congratulations as convincingly as possible, which would not have been convincing enough had Marcia had any reason to suspect anything behind his manner.

"How did you get it back?" he asked.

"The police called me to the station this morning and asked me to identify it," said Marcia. "They received it with some of the other things that were taken, in a package through the mail, without any explanation whatever. They're as mystified by it as you or I."

Tony gulped, remembering his guilty visit to New York three days before to mail the package.

"That—that's certainly fine," he muttered.

The nurse requested Marcia's assistance. Tony wandered miserably out of the room and downstairs, where he stood in solemn thought at the front door.

The move was providential, for at that moment Carlo's car stopped in front of the house and his brother got out and strode up the walk.

The time had come for a showdown. Providence granted one further boon. Tony's landlady appeared in the hall, dressed for the street, and announced that she was going out for an hour. She opened the door and, ignoring Carlo, whom she detested, walked away. The problem of private quarters for the interview with Carlo thus was solved.

"Come into the kitchen," Tony said curtly to his brother, and led the way.

Carlo saved him from the embarrassment of any evasive opening remarks.

"You know what I'm here for!" he said flatly. "You're the guy who

Canadian Programme Officials Confer in Ottawa; Manager Coming West

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Development of radio programmes that have an essentially Canadian flavor—entertainment that could originate in no other place—was the objective laid today before a conference of broadcasting officials by Major Gladstone Murray, general manager of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's policy of building up a basic structure of distinctly Canadian radio entertainment.

The conference was a part of the general survey being made by the corporation of Canada's available talent and possibilities of more extended development.

While it is intended to utilize the best and most desirable features of radio entertainment originating outside the Dominion, the corporation plans to create and develop diversified and purely Canadian entertainment, not only for the Dominion networks, but for short wave transmission, which will make it available to the world.

The conference concluded at noon, and Major Murray will leave at once on his projected tour of Quebec and the maritime provinces. Later he will make a similar visit to western Canada. A meeting of the board of governors will be held in mid-December.

The Family Doctor

By DR. MORRIS FISHER

The eye of man is one of the most remarkable organs of which we have any knowledge. Yet, marvelous as is the human eye, the eyes of many another species surpass it in certain qualities.

Many insects have eyes with far more facets, so that they may see all around them. One form of lobster has an eye mounted on a movable stem, which may be pointed in any direction. Some reptiles have eyes which can look at two different objects at the same time. Other animals have eyes protected by a bony casing from hazards to which these animals may be exposed.

The eye in man is small in relationship to the total size of his body. If his eyes were comparatively of the same size as those of certain birds, an average-sized man would have an eye weighing five pounds. Despite its size, however, the human eye is so important to the proper functioning of the body as a whole that it is worth while to do everything possible to insure adequate vision for every child and to protect the function of the eye by every possible procedure.

A new-born baby is far-sighted and, for that reason, pays little attention to objects close to him. By the age of two months, he is able to use his eye muscles to focus his eyes on things he wishes to see, but he does not see small objects well until he is at least six months old.

Because a baby's eye is so delicate, it should be protected against the various, often strong light, injuries from sun, objects, and irritants of various kinds. A baby does not have the ability to develop tears until he is several weeks old. There are then a means of cleaning the eye and washing out foreign and irritating substances.

As we grow older, our eyes change—the most significant changes being those in the lens, resulting in cataract. The muscles which help change the shape of the lens to adjust vision to various distances do not respond as well as formerly. Therefore, as they grow older, people may require glasses when previously they had been able to do without them.

KEATING

The November meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute was held in the Temperance Hall, W. D. Michell presiding.

G. H. Thornberry of the livestock department, assisted by Mr. Clarke, supervisor of the milk-testing association, presented interesting and instructive illustrated lantern slides on improved dairy herds and milk-testing work.

The annual pruning class will be held early in the New Year at H. C. Oldfield's farm, Gilles Crossroad, and also in the Elk Lake district.

Arrangements were made to hold the annual country store jointly with the Women's Institute on December 11.

A number of friends paid a surprise visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. McNally, Vancouvers Road. William Kersey presented the newlyweds with an electric toaster and an electric iron on behalf of the assembled guests.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the South Saanich United Church held a Christmas sale of work and silver tea in South Saanich United Church parlor, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. L. Hafer Sr. was in charge of the home-cooking stall, while Mrs. Patterson and Miss Violet McNally presided at the fancy work and plain sewing stall. Mrs. MacNab was tea convener, assisted by Mrs. Cruickshanks and Misses G. and L. Deering.

EXECUTION AT OAKALLA JAIL

Earl Dunbar Put to Death for Slaying of W. Hobbs, Bank Teller

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Nov. 27.—Earl Dunbar, thirty-two, was hanged at the Oakalla Jail at 6 o'clock this morning for the murder of William Hobbs in a bank holdup last January 15.

He was the fifth man to die as the result of the crime. Charles Russell, twenty-four, preceded him on the gallows November 6 and two other bandits committed suicide six days after the death of Hobbs.

Major T. S. Stewart of the Salvation Army stood beside Dunbar at the last, Arthur Ellis was executioner. The bank holdup was carried out shortly after noon on January 15. Three men entered the Powell Street and Victoria Drive branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, shot teller Hobbs through the throat and Thomas Winsby, manager, through the left arm. They escaped with $1,200 in a car in which a fourth man waited for them.

DEATH OCCURRED JANUARY 16

Mr. Winsby was not seriously injured, but Mr. Hobbs died January 16 and on the same day Dunbar and Russell were arrested. Two days later warrants charging murder were issued against Jack Hyslop and George F. Lawson. On January 22 Hyslop and Lawson shot themselves to death when police surrounded an east end rooming house in which they were hiding.

Dunbar and Russell were convicted and their appeals were denied by both the British Columbia Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court of Canada. Russell was hanged November 6, but Dunbar was reprieved pending the decision in his case, which came later than in Russell's. His defence claimed he had driven the bandit car under coercion.

OAKLANDS Y.P.S.

Oakland Y.P.S. held their first night meeting on Wednesday night. A Biblical examination contest on the 10th Psalm was the main feature of the evening. There were ten contestants who were questioned alternately as in a spelling bee, and showed by their careful answers that much time and intensive study had been spent on the Psalm.

The winner, was presented with a suitable book for his excellent knowledge of the subject. Those taking part in the contest were: Rachel Niven, Agnes McLeod, Marjory Kennedy, Vera Carter, Patricia Phillips, David Stewart, Lloyd Valio, Paul Ayres, Tom Sawyer and Alex McKerracher.

The prehistoric giant kangaroo known as a diprotodon was as big as a rhinoceros.

Is She a Contortionist?

Here is one for jigsaw puzzle fans to try out as a starter for their winter season. The smile belongs to Eve Evans, but those legs she is holding belong to someone else, proving that it takes more of a contortionist to figure out the trick than it does to illustrate it. The conspiracy was plotted on the sands at Tampa Bay, Fla.

New Russian Railroad Open

Siberian Northern Line to Komsomolsk on Pacific Now Carries Trains

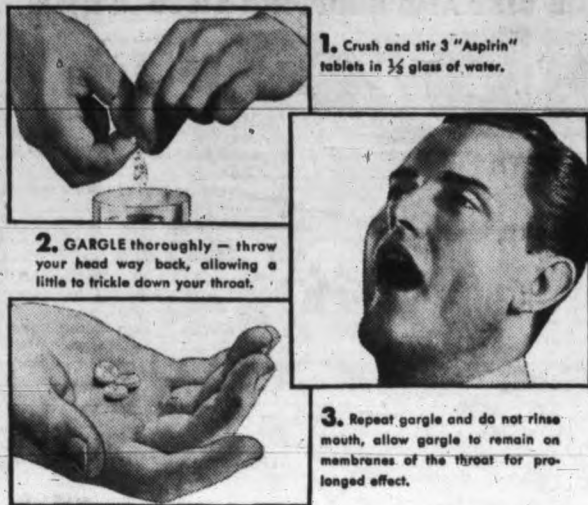

Associated Press

Moscow, Nov. 27.—Completion of steel-laying on an important military railroad—the Soviet Great Northern to the Pacific—was announced today to the All-union Congress of Soviets.

G. M. Krutoff, premier of the far eastern area of the Soviet Union, disclosed the first supply train had reached Komsomolsk yesterday from Moscow. Komsomolsk is the Far Eastern terminal on the Amur River, several hundred miles north of Vladivostok, where the Soviets will build a great port.

This railway is one of the keystones of Soviet defence against any Japanese attack. It parallels the trans-Siberian Railway, but well within Soviet territory.

Sore Throat Pains DUE TO COLDS Eased Instantly

Just Gargle This Way with "ASPIRIN"

Here is the most amazing way to ease the pains of rawness of sore throat resulting from a cold we know you have ever tried.

Crush and dissolve three "ASPIRIN" tablets in one-third glass of water. Then gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back.

This medicinal gargle will act almost like a local anesthetic on the sore, irritated membrane of your throat. Pain eases almost instantly; rawness is relieved.

Countless thousands now use this way to ease sore throat. Your doctor, we are sure, will approve it. And you will say it is marvelous.

● "Aspirin" tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited, of Windsor, Ontario. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

Defence Unable to Hold High Cards Against Long Run of Trump and Final Forcing Play

By WM. E. McKENNEY

It has sometimes been said that one mark of an expert bridge player is that he not only gets more out of his cards and kings than does the average player, but that he has a knack of finding useful tests for the deuces and treys which look so very meaningless to the amateur.

Two of the younger masters who are expected to attend the forthcoming national championship tournament of the American Bridge League at the Hotel Stevens in Chicago, the week of November 30, are Jules Bank and George Rapp. In a recent tournament held in Albany, N.Y., Bank showed that he fully appreciated the value of a "worthless" card.

SOLUTION TO PREVIOUS CONTRACT PROBLEM

Bank sat South and when the opening lead was made, and the dummy spread, he could see that he had his contract without any trouble. Five odd was certain, as his only losers were a diamond and a heart, but Bank looked around to see whether he could get a little more out of the hand.

Today's Contract Problem

East is playing the contract at seven diamonds, bid as a sacrifice over North's six spade offer. North had been permitted to play the hand at a small slam in spades, could he have made the contract against a diamond lead?

After West had won the first trick with the ace of hearts, he led a spade to dummy's ace. Bank then played seven rounds of clubs, leaving in his own hand the queen and nine of diamonds, the five of clubs and the seven of hearts. Dummy held the three of spades, K-10 of hearts and ace of diamonds.

East retained, as his four final cards, the K-10 of diamonds and the Q-J of hearts. Now Bank led a diamond to dummy's ace. When he played dummy's three of spades, which had been saved for that special use.

East was squeezed. If he dropped the diamond king, Bank's remaining diamond would be good. If he discarded a heart, he would establish both hearts in dummy.

Thus six odd were made on a hand which had appeared a somewhat doubtful four.

IN COURT FOR LICENSE FEES

Saanich Tradesmen Fined for Failing to Pay Municipal Levy

The first of prosecutions this year by Saanich police against municipal tradesmen who have not paid their license fees was brought in Saanich Police Court yesterday.

J. Smith & Sons and Karma Singh both pleaded guilty to charges of being retail dealers without holding licenses to carry on their businesses. They were each fined $5 and paid their license fees in court.

Frank Dunnigan and Charles Brown, who were arraigned on charges of hunting without licenses, pleaded guilty and each was fined $10. The court ordered confiscation of Dunnigan's gun, an antiquated shotgun, which police told the court was a dangerous weapon which was not in proper working order.

Rampertab and Rutna, East Indians charged with robbing Bachan Singh of $50, were remanded for a week. M. B. Jackson, K.C., appeared for the defence.

On a charge of keeping for service a buck goat not auroled with the Department of Agriculture, Fred Smith was granted a week's remand, during which time he undertook to get rid of buck goats in his possession.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

Since there is no Christmas in Japan, that country's annual exchange of goodwill greetings comes on New Year, in the form of stamps printed especially for the occasion.

For the last New Year, Japan issued a special stamp for inland postage, and placed it on sale December 1, 1935, for use on New Year greeting cards.

The time for mailing these cards, with the special stamps, began December 20, and all cards were delivered early on New Year's Day, with the January 1 date cancelled on the stamps. During the New Year mailing of 1935, more than 600,000,000 such greeting cards were mailed and delivered.

Each year a new stamp will be issued. The last stamp, shown here, carried a picture of sacred Mt. Fuji, and had a border design of the "Genroku" pattern, which includes the three happy symbols of the New Year—the pine, bamboo, and plum blossom.

SOOKE

Sooke, Nov. 27.—Over 100 people attended the card party held in Sooke Community Hall Wednesday evening by the Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute in aid of the children's Christmas tree fund. Bridge, 500 and cribbage were played. Winners were as follows: Bridge, Miss A. Paswell and P. Gray, first; Mrs. D. W. Ferguson and J. Collins, consolation; 500, Mrs. A. Sullivan, Mrs. A. L. Wilson, C. Thompson and A. Sullivan, first; Mrs. F. Thorner and Mrs. W. Baker Sr., ten bid; Mrs. A. J. Syrett, Mrs. S. Dever, Mrs. J. Seaton and W. Baker Sr., consolation; cribbage, H. Whitehead, M. Fisher and V. Shugreen. Mrs. C. Baker won the lucky chair prize, while tombola prizes were won by Mrs. F. Merryman and Miss Irene Clarke.

Two basketball games are scheduled to be played in Charter's Hall Saturday night. The visiting teams will be Maywood seniors and the West Road intermediates.

"Solomon" Will Be Sung Dec. 6

Handel's oratorio, "Solomon," will be sung in the First United Church by a chorus of over fifty voices on Sunday afternoon, December 6, at 3 o'clock.

Although not so well known as the "Messiah," this work is very attractive from both the listeners' and singers' standpoint. The choir will sing from J. Michael Dick's edition which contains the most attractive solos and choruses from the original score.

The soloists will be Mrs. W. H. Wilson, taking the part of the "first woman"; Mrs. C. A. Goodwin, the "second woman"; J. Maurice Thomas, "narrator"; James Petrie, the "high priest"; and Beverly Fyfe, "Solomon." W. C. Fyfe will conduct and G. H. Feaker will act as organist.

Youthful New York Rangers Move Into N.H.L. Section Lead

THE SPORTS MIRROR

STRANGE as it may seem, bowling is the greatest of all sports, from the standpoint of number of participants. Growth of the great annual American Bowling Congress stresses the upward trend of the sport. Only forty-one teams took part in the congress' first tournament staged in Chicago in 1901. Two years ago in Syracuse the entry was 2,830. In Indianapolis last March the total was 2,853. The tournament next March in New York is expected to attract 3,500 teams.

The New York metropolitan district alone will send 1,500 teams to the event. New Jersey has entered 130 teams, Philadelphia 300, Chicago and Detroit 100 each, Indianapolis 92. Rochester and Utica 60 each, which gives one a rough idea of the interest. A couple of Hawaiian combinations will travel 9,000 miles by steamship to roll nine games. With competition in singles, doubles and five-man events, and with squads composed of from six to eight men, at least 25,000 will take to the alleys.

One of the principal reasons for all this activity is that the total prize money has gone well past the $100,000 mark in the past few years. A new record of $125,000 is looked for in the 1937 meet. Prize money for the initial congress at the turn of the century was $2,500.

American Bowling Congress has developed into such a tremendous show that Bill Lattin, vice-president of the United States organization and president of the New York association, will make it a full time job between now and the final strike, spare, split, or miss.

Foremost among American bowlers are Skang Mercurio and Joe Bodis of Cleveland. Mort Lindsey, Joe Falcaro, Andy Varipapa, and Barney Spinella of New York. Billy Knox of Philadelphia. Otto Stein of St. Louis. Joe Miller and Jimmy Smith of Buffalo. Hank Marino of Milwaukee. Jim Murrie and Adolph Carlson.

Mercurio is the highest individual average man in the United States. Spinella and Smith each won the all-events twice. Smith prevailed in 1911 and 1920. Bowlers never seem to grow old. Spinella's average of 145 in ten games of hardwood duckpins is a record.

Knox was first to roll 300 in A. B. C. play and held the all-events record with 2,024 for years.

The American Bowling Congress attracts young and old, short and tall. In the 1935 tournament in Syracuse, for example, J. G. Finch of Shenley, Pa., eight feet tall, bowled side by side with S. W. Ginn of New York, four feet two inches in height. W. Y. Thompson of Chicago, who is seventy-one, has participated in every A.B.C. event since its inception. He was responsible for the installation of alleys in London, Paris and other European centres.

Pennsylvania coal region has entered two family teams. They are the eight Ogden brothers of Avoca and the six Augustus brothers of Houston. They are in a league in which 26 is an ordinary single game score. Five-man teams run up better than 3,000 totals for three-game series. Jerry Augustus finished twelfth in the A.B.C.

Millionaires roll against truck drivers in the A.B.C., where the only idea is to push the ball directly into the pocket for strike hits.

Final Medal at Uplands Links

The final medal round of the year will take place at the Uplands Golf Club on Sunday. This being the last one of the year a large turnout is expected. Full handicaps will be allowed.

The month of December promises to be a busy one at the Uplands. Two turkey competitions will be held, the first of which will be open to the women members, and full handicaps will be allowed. The second will be for men only. Dates of these competitions will be announced later. A large entry is expected for the marked foursome competition to be held on Boxing Day.

The Victoria Athletic Club juvenile soccer lineup for tomorrow follows: Thomas, Simpson, Tonkin, Popham, Atherton, McAllister, Sherbrooke, Simpson, Mar, Smith and Travis. Reserves: Lowe, Hardy, Watson and J. Smith.

Defeat Americans As Detroit Drops Clash to Chicago

Red Wings Blanked 2 to 0 As Hawks Mark Up First Victory of Season

Toronto-Boston Other Winners

Even the hockey boys are swinging it. Not so long ago a new-style music muscled in on the jazz mania to put a peppier slant on dancing—now a similar fad has been born or reborn in the National League—let's call it swing hockey. Meet the daddy of the idea or at least the first gent who figured a way to make the teams swing it or else—Art Ross.

The manager of the burly Boston Bruins got his first opportunity to present his scheme for wide-open hockey last night. It brought the desired effect, pleasing 16,000 Boston fans as the Bruins followed the new rhythm set by their Boss and swung to a 3 to 2 overtime victory over Montreal Maroons.

If the red-shirts had not lived up to their agreement to open the throttle while on Boston ice they would have had to shell out $1,000. But they came through and now manager Tom Gorman is wondering if Maroons would have won if they had tightened up just a little more—Bruins tied the game up with eighteen seconds of regulation play remaining.

CHICAGO WINS

Conny Smythe saw new hope for his foundering and linked Leafs as they marked up their first win in twelve days at expense of Canadiens. They won 4 to 3 in a hectic game that at one time threatened to turn into a riot. Chicago Black Hawks also had reason for glee as they stepped into Detroit and beat Red Wings 2 to 0 for their first win of the season.

Leif Patrick saw his band of hand-picked youngsters and veterans even the score on games with their intra-city rivals, New York Americans, and take undisputed leadership of the league's United States section. The score was 3 to 1.

Maroons tore into Bruins from the start, leading 7 to 1 on goals by Jimmy Ward and Dave Trotter against Hootie Smith's Boston marker, the Hornet-like looked sure of a win as fans began to leave their seats in the dying seconds.

Eighteen seconds from the third period bell, Neil Stewart obtained the puck on Smith's rebound, and beat Alex Connell in Maroons' nets. After one minute overtime Red Beanie bagged the winner.

Problems continued to mount for manager Smythe as his Leafs showed flashes of the form he hopes will carry them to the playoffs. As Buzz Boll, fast-skating left-winger, was boxed by Canadiens' Babe Siebert, he broke his right arm and went to the sidelines for a six-week rest.

With two of the league's ace snipers on opposite sides of the fence there was plenty of action for 15,000 Gotham fans as Rangers beat Americans, and take undisputed leadership of the league's United States section. The score was 3 to 1.

CANADIENS—TORONTO

First period—Scoring: None. Penalties: Boll (2), Haynes, Davidson, Joliat.

Second period—1, Toronto, Boll (Drillon), 18:44. Penalty: Kelly.

Third period—3, Toronto, Fowler (Metz), 5:45; 3, Toronto, Metz, 10:53; 4, Canadiens, McGill (Haynes), 12:12; 5, Toronto, Smith, 16:37; 6, Canadiens (Turn to Page 14, Col. 3)

Buzz Boll Breaks Arm

Montreal, Nov. 27.—Buzz Boll, sharpshooter of Toronto Maple Leafs, suffered a broken right arm as Leafs scored a 4 to 2 victory over Montreal Canadiens in a National Hockey League clash last night. Club doctors said the left winger would be out of the line-up six weeks.

Boll's injury came in the third period when "Babe" Siebert, Canadiens defenceman, crashed him into the boards. The two had raced back from a Canadian game play with Boll slightly in front of Siebert.

As Boll went to pass the puck from near the corner, Siebert checked him into the boards and Buzz went down.

Siebert drew a two-minute boarding penalty on the play. Canadian fans demonstrated for ten minutes against the penalty, cluttering the ice with beer bottles, coins, papers and metal bolts.

Boll's injury further weakened the revamped Toronto squad. It followed by two days the retirement of Frank "King" Glancy, release of the veteran goalkeeper, George Hainsworth, and the benching of Charlie Conacher for ten days because of a wrist injury.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

NON-AMERICAN STATESMAN

En route to America from their native England, Judah Benjamin's parents were halted outside the port of New Orleans in 1811 by a blockade of British warships and were forced to put back to St. Croix in the West Indies. Here, on August 11 of the same year, Judah Benjamin was born.

With a war of 1812 over, the Benjamins gained entry to the country and settled in Wilmington, N.C. Young Judah's precocity was soon displayed. A brilliant student in his early school days, he swept through his successive grades and at the age of fourteen entered Yale University.

Quitting college before he graduated, Benjamin went to New Orleans, where he took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1832 at twenty-one.

Oddly enough, the young alien's first political prominence was won when, as a member of the state convention to revise the constitution, he advocated an amendment requiring the candidates for governor to be citizens born in the United States.

In 1848 Benjamin was made a presidential elector from Louisiana and in 1852 was elected to the U.S. Senate by the state. Upon the secession of Louisiana, 1861, he resigned as senator and shortly thereafter was appointed attorney-general of the provisional government of the Confederate States. Subsequently he won appointments as Secretary of War and Secretary of State, winning a reputation as the "brains of the Confederacy." Upon the dissolution of the Confederate government, Benjamin fled to England, where he became a highly successful lawyer. Throughout his entire life he held his British citizenship.

PIGSKIN PARADOX

The brand of football played in the first intercollegiate game, Princeton vs. Rutgers, November 6, 1869, would hardly be recognizable in comparison with the modern day game. The game was much like soccer and the ball was a rubber sphere.

Ross Will Defend His Title Tonight

Welterweight Champion Steps Into Ring at New York for Fifteen-round Bout With Izzy Jannazzo; Titleholder Reigns 3 to 1 Favorite

New York, Nov. 27.—Barney Ross, the busy Chicago battler who has been averaging better than one non-title fight for every two months this year, put his welterweight crown on the block against Izzy Jannazzo of New York's east side at Madison Square Garden tonight. The indications are that Barney, if he wins as expected, will become busier than ever.

Because of the complications that arose when Jannazzo and Cefarino Garcia drew in their elimination bout to pick a challenger for Ross in tonight's fifteen-round scrap, the winner is slated to meet the tough west coast lad within sixty days.

Provided he comes through those two scraps, Barney likely will be paired with Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver for the fourth time. Ross has a 2 to 1 edge over the Canadian star in their previous bouts, which saw the title change hands each time.

Although some experts figure Jannazzo may have a chance to outlast the champion and probably will give him some trouble with his peculiar jabbing style, the odds are all in favor of Ross. The light betting has favored the champion 3 to 1.

In the women's par competition held at the Colwood Golf Club yesterday Mrs. H. P. Crowe was the winner in "A" class with a score of 2 down, and Dorothy Donald headed the "B" class players with a score of 2 up.

Close Badminton Entries Tonight

Judging from the rate at which entries are being filed, the annual city badminton championships, which get under way this evening, will have the largest registration in many years.

Entries will close this evening at 7 o'clock. Intending competitors are asked to file their names with tournament secretary F. A. Jackson at 1333 Fort Street, telephone 5-6917.

The tournament will open on Monday and continue until Friday. Matches will be played in the Willows Agricultural Hall. Finals in all divisions will be played the night of December 4.

M.C.C. TEAM FARES BADLY

Tail Collapses in Match With Queensland; All Out For 215 Runs

Brisbane, Australia, Nov. 27.—After opening batsmen sent the touring Marylebone Cricket Club team away to a good start in its four-day match against Queensland today, the tail-enders collapsed badly and the entire side was dismissed for 215 runs. The home team made 71 for no wickets before play closed for the day. At one stage of the English innings the total stood at 193 for four wickets, but the remaining players could do nothing against Queensland's attack, only 22 runs being added.

Maurice Leyland, Yorkshire stalwart, performed brilliantly to make 98. He hit 16 fours and with Leslie Ames, Kent wicketkeeper, added 107 runs for the fourth wicket in 86 minutes. Ames obtained 41 and Wally Hammond 36. Charles Barnett scored 20, but the remaining players were unable to reach double figures.

The Queenslanders were exceptionally smart in the field. L. B. Fishlock and Kenneth Farnes both being dismissed with smart returns to the wicket. Don Tallon gave a fine display behind the wickets for the home team, stumping Hedley Verity and catching Hammond and R. W. V. Robins.

Big Seven of Major Hockey

The four-front bombardment in the National Hockey League last night created a three-way tie for first place in the scoring race as Bob Gracie of Maroons went scoreless while Nick Metz, Toronto, garnered two points and Dave "Sweeney" Schirmer, Americans, one. The trio were tied with eight points each.

Leary Aurie and Marty Barry of Detroit; Babe Pratt, Rangers; Pit Leppine, Canadiens; Earl Robinson, Maroons, and Art Chapman, Americans, divided the last three places in the big seven with six points apiece.

Leaders follow:

	G.	A.	Pts.
Schirmer, Americans	4	4	8
Metz, Toronto	4	4	8
Gracie, Maroons	1	7	8
N. Colville, Rangers	5	2	7

G. H. ALLEN, WINNIPEG, DIES

Ottawa, Nov. 27 (Canadian Press).—George H. Allen, eighty-six, old-time cabinet maker and father of W. G. Allen, sports editor of Free Press, died in a hospital yesterday. He had lived in retirement for many years. W. G. Allen is the only member of the family surviving.

Record Sum For Horses

New York, Nov. 27.—Prices for young trotters and pacers from the Walnut Hall Farm soared to the highest mark since 1929 yesterday as the famous Donerick, K. J. horse nursery sent its final consignment of yearlings under the hammer at the forty-second Old Glory auction.

Walnut Hall, owned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards of Pittsburgh, offered twenty-five colts and fillies during the final session of the sale and they brought $21,000 for an average of $840.

Although none of the young horses came close to matching the $15,500 paid for the great stallion, Mr. McElwyn, on the opening day or the $7,000 brought Wednesday by the Duchesse, a yearling, there was an unexpected demand for the Walnut Hall youngsters.

The sale officials reported the greatest auction of standard bred horses of recent years. During the three days 346 horses were knocked down for $189,255 as compared to 265 head for $140,330 last year.

Top prices of the day was paid by Jerome Vandeweghe of Belgium, $4,600 for Leo Oettinger's Miss Peter Belle, a four-year-old filly.

Huskies Smother Washington State 40 to 0 to Capture Coast Conference Football Title and Rose Bowl Engagement; Alabama Winner; Fordham Beaten

Seattle, Nov. 27.—The University of Washington Huskies today were well-armed and ready to take over the big New Year's Day Rose Bowl assignment after riddling Washington State College with six touchdowns for a 40 to 0 triumph in their Thanksgiving Day battle.

The victory, the most lopsided scored by any team in Pacific Coast Conference competition this year, gave Washington the championship for the first time in eleven years, and the right to play in the Pasadena classic.

By snuffing out the challenge of the staters in convincing fashion, the Huskies closed their conference season with an undefeated record—six wins, and a tie with Stanford.

Outside league play they trimmed the University of Idaho and lost by a touchdown to Minnesota, the highest ranking team of the country.

EASTERN OPPONENT

After conference officials formally present Washington with the Rose Bowl award, as is expected, it will face the knotty problem of selecting an eastern or southern opponent.

Some say it will be Alabama, others predict Louisiana State, and still others say Pittsburgh. Washington officials say nothing.

Alabama, closing its season yesterday with a 13 to 6 victory over Vanderbilt, looked stronger than ever as the leading candidate of the east and south.

The only blot on Alabama's record of nine games is a scoreless tie with Tennessee.

New York Nov. 27.—The football follies of 1936, one of the dizziest gridiron comedies in the books, headed toward its big final scenes today—the Army-Navy classic Saturday and the Rose Bowl battle, with Washington probably taking on Alabama, on New Year's Day.

The Thanksgiving Day renewal of gridiron tradition followed the season's form for surprise and left the Huskies with the Pacific Coast conference crown and the western ticket to the Rose Bowl. Alabama seems the most likely to make up the other half of the Pasadena programme.

New York University knocked over Fordham's mighty Rams, Texas surprised the Texas Aggies, 7 to 0. Penn had a tough time before beating Cornell, 14 to 6, and the military began marching on Philadelphia.

Although the grapevine had it that Alabama, undefeated and once deadlocked, would get the bowl call, still regarded in the running were Louisiana State's unbeaten Tigers, idle until the Tulane game Saturday; Pitt's Panthers, who walloped Carnegie, 34 to 14; and Duke's Blue Devils, who trounced North Carolina State, 18 to 0.

Perhaps no upset was more unexpected than the 7 to 6 decision New York University pulled out over the strongest Fordham team in years. Undefeated and tied twice, the Rams went into the battle as 4 to 1 shots over a team that had yet to score a major victory.

Colgate's Red Raiders ran wild against Brown, 32 to 0, in another eastern feature.

Down south, Tennessee stopped Kentucky, 7 to 6, and North Carolina steamrollered Virginia, 59 to 14.

The midwest state was headlined by Missouri's 19 to 3 win over Kansas to take second place behind Nebraska in the big six race; Detroit's 6 to 0 edge over Creighton, and the 31 to 6 beating St. Louis handed its local rival, Washington U.

Arkansas' Razorbacks passed their way to a 23 to 19 win over Tulsa; Denver took second place in the Rocky Mountain area with a close 7 to 6 decision over Colorado.

First Division Soccer Teams in League Matches Tomorrow

Undeclared Wests Oppose Thistles At Athletic Park

Greenshirts After Seventh Straight Win; City Tackle Esquimalt

Games Start at 2.30 o'clock

Teams in the first division of the Victoria and District Football League will engage in league matches tomorrow afternoon. The undefeated leaders, Victoria West, will tackle the Saanich Thistles at the Athletic Park with A. McKay as referee. The second place Victoria City and Esquimalt are billed at Heywood Avenue with D. Swan as referee. Both matches will start at 2.30 o'clock.

With six victories to their credit the Wests will attempt to retain their first record against the Thistles. In their last league appearance the greenshirts were extended to nose out the City by the odd goal in seven, the winning counter coming as the result of a penalty. Last Saturday the Thistles battled the City to an overtime draw in the final of the Milton Cup.

The City-Esquimalt match should produce some keen play. The former must win to assure themselves of keeping within striking distance of the Wests. Although the greenshirts are well out in front the City still have a chance to finish on top.

SECOND DIVISION

Two second division matches will also be run off. Esquimalt will oppose the Cooperage at Bullen Park with T. Robb as referee and the Saanich Thistles and Victoria West will battle at Victoria West Park with W. Allen as referee. These matches will get under way at 2.30 o'clock.

Teams follow:
Victoria West, first division—Resall, Sweeney, R. Bell, Loranidin, Barnes, Sage, G. Bell, Stewart, J. Watt, Robinson, O'Neil and Morgan.
Victoria West, second division—Hornby, Hay, Kennedy, Hicklebrand, Campbell, Hay, Price, Barnes, Dallimore, Collier, Tutthill and Paterson.
Saanich Thistles, first division—Chalmers, Essler, Harper, Williams, Leggett, Speller, Stofor, Turner, Sage, D. Gent, K. Gent, Crowe, Myles, Robinson and English.
Saanich Thistles, second division—Elliott, Hill, Arncliffe, Hodgkinson, Mitchell, Hayward, Williams, Hetherington, Bacon, Oakley, Murray and Barr.

Victoria City—Rowe, Moody, Roper, C. Robbins, G. Robbins, Reside, G. Payne, J. Payne, Brandon, Moore, Hodgson, Perra and Pearce.
Esquimalt will be chosen from the following: L. De Costa, Watt, March, Robinson, Resall, McKay, E. De Costa, Dear, Pearce, Hess, Brown, Tregalis, Barnwell, Rickinson and Griffin.

SIX HEAVIES ON MAT SHOW

Leading Coast Grapplers to Perform at Tillicum Gym Tomorrow Night

Robert Russell, Chicago; Harry Kent, Portland; Bull Martin and Bobby Stewart, newcomers to Coast mat circles; Babe Smallinski, Polish exponent, and Louie Newman, Victoria, are the six heavyweights who will do duty on tomorrow night's wrestling card at the Tillicum gym.

Kent will be matched with Stewart in one portion of the double main event. The former has appeared here on several occasions and has proven a favorite with local followers. He should make a good opponent for the newcomer, who is also said to be fast and clever.

The other part of the double main event will bring together Russell and Martin. Russell is no stranger to local fans, having appeared here against Chief Chiwacki and Donald McIntyre. Husky and well-built he is plenty tough. Martin has been taking on leading coast heavyweights during the last few months and has been making good progress.

Both main events are slated for six ten-minute rounds, or the best of three falls.

Babe Smallinski, who has not been seen in action in the local ring for a number of months, will return to take on Newman in the special event of five six-minute rounds.

Legs Hay and George Lowe, Chinese grapplers, will exchange grips in the preliminary bout at 8.45 o'clock.

MASTER BUCK IS SURPRISE

Winner of Seventh Race at Bay Meadows to Pay $31.80

OUR MAIL BAG

THE REASON WHY

To The Sports Editor:—May we, through the medium of your paper, inform the local wrestling fans the true reason why we and the rest of the regular preliminary boys have not appeared on any of the winter wrestling exhibitions. It seems (so we are told) that an odd one of the fans interested enough to inquire why we were not wrestling on the preliminaries was told that we did not want to wrestle. That is not true. We are not wanted because we wrestled for an outdoor club during the summer months.

HUNDREDS AT GRAND FROLIC

Anglers Gather to Celebrate Success of Fishing Season at Annual Jamboree

Knights of the rod, with their families and friends, numbering 450, gathered in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium yesterday evening for the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association's annual jamboree, staged to celebrate and wind up the most successful season in history.

Arranged by the Chinook Club, which is a select group within the association, the event was a program of entertainment was presented.

"Five years ago a number of enterprising anglers formed this association. Since then the membership has grown in leaps and bounds, until today we boast a roll call of more than 800 members," said Dr. Hugh Clarke, president, who extended a welcome on behalf of the association.

Charlie Clarke acted as master of ceremonies. The concert programme was well arranged, with leading local artists participating. The show opened with Miss Winnie Hall rendering two solos; next was Miss Geraldine Patterson, with an acrobatic dance; Ernie Prentice contributed a number of humorous sketches, included in which was his singing of the "Wreck of the Old 97"; Miss Phyllis Addison danced two Spanish numbers; Ernie Fullerton and Norm Bentley rendered a piano accordion and banjo selection together, and Sonya Slavina contributed two dramatic dances.

The hit of the show was "The Operation," which drew roars of mirth from the crowd. Those taking part in the skit, presented in silhouette, behind a white curtain, were Bev Gilson, as Dr. Knock-em-Stiff, Paul Ray, as his assistant, and "Smiling" Bill Rowe as the patient. It was well put over.

Jack Townsend contributed a couple of songs and led the community singing, following the concert refreshments were served and the latter part of the evening was devoted to dancing.

The committee in charge follows: Charlie Clarke, chairman; Bill Rowe, Charlie Kinlock, Bev Gilson, Frank Moore, Mrs. E. M. Smith, Miss E. Dean, Paul Ray, Dr. Hugh Clarke, Bill Lucas and Bill Halliday.

Cup Soccer Will Start Tomorrow

Sixty-eight Teams Play in First Round Proper of English Cup; Sunderland and Portsmouth, First Division Leaders, Face Charlton and Bolton in League-Play

London, Nov. 27.—League football fades from the spotlight in England and Wales tomorrow as sixty-eight clubs, representing the third division and minor and amateur leagues, battle in the first round proper of the English Cup competition.

Third division squads enter the fray for the first time tomorrow, but twenty-seven other teams are the survivors of scores of tough struggles among little-known clubs in the qualifying rounds. Chester, Luton and Port Vale, third division teams, are exempted from the initial round. Minor leagues are exerting every effort to remain in the competition that ends with the final at Wembley early in May, but little is expected from the amateurs, although Corinthians are eager to end a long string of defeats. The famous amateurs, who play Bristol Rovers on the old cup final ground at the Crystal Palace, have not won a match in the major rounds of the cup since 1920 when they defeated Norwich City. Their chances tomorrow are not particularly bright as they will play without Bernard Joy and E. D. R. Shearer, two of their stars.

SOUTHALL AT CARDIFF

Southall, another amateur outfit that made history last year by reaching the third round, has a difficult task at Cardiff, but Walthamstow Avenue, a London club, may surprise Northampton Town.

Crystal Palace and Southend meet in the cup competition for the first time. Brighton plays Queen's Park Rangers, who they defeated in a second-round cup tie two years ago, while Torquay United defeated Clapton Orient in a league match last month.

League football is confined to the first and second divisions, members of which do not play for the cup until the third round.

SUNDERLAND TRAVELS
Sunderland and Portsmouth lead the parade in the first division, each with twenty points. Portsmouth, at home, should have little difficulty in taking two points from Bolton Wanderers, but Sunderland is due in London to meet the smart Charlton Athletic outfit.

The visitors are expected to be at full strength. Charlton is making changes in view of the smashing 6 to 1 defeat inflicted by Wolverhampton Wanderers last week. Wilkinson, a former outside right, goes to centre in place of Stephenson. The latter moves to the inside-left position to deputize for Boulter, injured in training this week. In another change, Turner displaces Shreeve at right back.

Grimsby Town entertain Wolverhampton Wanderers, and it will be a great day for Beattie, the Town's captain, who will complete ten years as a member of the club. An indication of his popularity lies in the fact that a Grimsby street bears his name. Beattie has made 402 league appearances for the fishermen.

For its match at West Bromwich Arsenal is expected to play Crayston at right-half in place of Bastin. In its efforts to get out of last place, Manchester United has signed Breen, Belfast Celtic's international goalkeeper. He will play at Leeds.

Glasgow, Nov. 27.—Some of the less fortunate clubs in the Scottish Football League may provide surprises tomorrow in what appears an unattractive list of fixtures. The leaders, with the exception of fifth-place Third Lanark, have soft games, on paper at least.

Third Lanark goes to Dundee, where a hard-fought match is likely. The home team, up with the championship contenders for most of the season to date, has struck a bad patch recently, but is certain to play its hardest to hand the Cathkin Park club its second reverse in nine starts. The Dundee squad went under 5 to 3 against Falkirk last Saturday.

Although Aberdeen has only a one-point advantage over Celtic, it is likely to retain its place this weekend. The Dons are at home against Hamilton Academicals, and Celtic also will perform before its own supporters, with Dunfermline supplying the opposition. Mid-week forecasts favor the home teams.

RANGERS MEET ALBION

Glasgow Rangers, the cupholders, go to Coatbridge for a match with Albion Rovers. One point up on Hearts in fourth place and three behind Celtic, the Rangers have not lost a game this season. They have won nine and drawn seven. Another entry in the win column should be made after tomorrow's contest.

Hearts are expected to retain their single-point margin over Third Lanark. The Edinburgh club has an away game with Queen of the South, and it is highly improbable the Dummies eleven will have the power to hold the fast-stepping visitors.

Falkirk has shown real form during the past month and is now included in the first ten. The team has a good chance of strengthening its position with a home game against Hibernians.

Completing the ten-game schedule, Arbroath entertains St. Mirren, St. Johnstone goes to Kilmarnock, and Queen's Park and Clyde battle on the former's great enclosure at Hampden Park.

Chief attraction in the second division is the St. Bernard's-Ayr United clash. Ayr is at the top of the league with twenty-four points, one up on St. Bernard's and Morton. Arbroath, in fourth place, are away to Morton in another important contest.

DUNCAN GOLF

Duncan, Nov. 27.—Mrs. W. Prest was the winner of the women's monthly medal competition played on the links at Duncan on Wednesday afternoon, with a net score of 81, handicap 16, gross 97. Others taking part were Mrs. H. N. Watson, Miss P. Carr Hilton, Mrs. J. Longbourne, Mrs. Boyd Wallis and Mrs. F. G. Aldersey.

Alberta Farmer's Wife Is Missing

Canadian Press

Didsbury, Alta., Nov. 27.—A night-long search brought no trace of Mrs. Ira Levagood, wife of a Didsbury district farmer, who disappeared from her home early yesterday.

Police and citizens, aided by the famous police dog, Dale of Cawatta, continued the search today, with additional volunteers joining to scour the farmlands west of here.

Tribute Paid By Minister

"I feel the loss of Deputy Minister of Mines Robert Dunn very greatly," said Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Mines for British Columbia, this morning. Mr. Dunn died yesterday.

"Mr. Dunn's lengthy experience in matters pertaining to mining laws in this province and his long association with the late Hon. William Sloan gave him a knowledge of the problems confronting the Department of Mines which was invaluable," the minister continued.

"His calm and sound judgment was a tower of strength in dealing with the many problems that confront us. He will be greatly missed by me. The province as a whole has suffered a great loss."

The Victoria Social Credit Association will cancel its regular meeting tonight in favor of a whist drive which will be held in the Women's Institute rooms at 835 1/2 Fort Street. Prizes will be given and refreshments will be served.

W. T. STRAITH SEEKS SEAT

Former Alderman Will Stand for One-Year Term on City Council

William T. Straith, past president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and member of other public bodies, who was elected to the City Council in 1928 and in 1930 and then retired, today stated he would be a candidate in the by-election for the one-year council term created by Alderman P. R. Brown's resignation.

He is the first to enter the field for the by-election.

Four years a member of the School Board and four years on the council, Mr. Straith today expressed his recognition of the financial problems confronting the council.

He voiced his appreciation of Mayor David Leeming's efforts to secure relief for the city, and said he hoped to be able to assist in securing more favorable treatment from the provincial government.

While Mr. Straith's entry created renewed interest in the civic field, the question of disqualification of Mayor Leeming by School Trustee Charles R. Bishop. One verbal legal opinion he had received yesterday was to the effect his status on the board could not be challenged. He was waiting for further advice on the matter today.

MAYORALTY

In the mayoralty lists, reports indicated Alderman Andrew McGavin would make his announcement within the next day or two.

Approached this morning, the alderman declined to make any definite statement and then stepped out of his front door to tell a citizen he would contest the mayoralty. Questioned on the action, the alderman replied that meant nothing definite. In other quarters, however, reports indicated Alderman McGavin had undertaken preliminary arrangements for a campaign.

Tonight the Victoria Ratepayers' Association will meet to decide whether it will draw up its own slate or support candidates already in the field. The meeting will be in the City Hall at 8 o'clock.

Eighteen tables of progressive five hundred were in progress at the Wednesday evening card party held by the Lake Hill Lawn Bowling Club at the Lake Hill Community Centre. The prize winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Hsie, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. McCallum; gentlemen, Mr. Milne, Mr. Campion, Mr. Hult; tenbid, Mr. and Mrs. Dawes. Hostesses for the refreshments were Mrs. Smeltz, Mrs. Upward, Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Milnes.

Members of the Royal Society of St. George are to hold a reunion meeting in the Conservative clubrooms, Campbell Building, on Tuesday, December 8, when an address will be given by Harry Langley on "Recent Impressions of England." Mr. Langley visited the Old Country during the summer and will have many interesting things to say as a result of his travels and observations in England. Mrs. A. W. Stokes will contribute special musical numbers, including the "Cantique de Noel," by Adolph Adam, by request; also Jim Matheson will sing Elgar's world-famous "Land of Hope and Glory." Old members and friends are cordially invited to attend, and the meeting will be open to the public. After the lecture, it is proposed to appoint a nominating committee to select names of those willing to stand for office. The meeting will commence at 8 p.m.

Youth Council Holds Meeting

Large Attendance at Opening Meeting of Newly Formed Council

The first session of the newly-organized Victoria Youth Council was held in the Y.M.C.A. yesterday evening, with thirty-eight delegates from twenty-two youth organizations in attendance.

Nigel Morgan was in the chair. Short addresses were given by Miss Constance Fraser and Ralph E. Dent, who outlined the highlights of the youth movement in Canada and abroad. The business session was opened with a prayer and followed with the reading of correspondence. The remainder of the evening was given over to discussion and setting up of a constitution.

The objective of the council is to co-ordinate the activities of all youth groups along the lines of world peace, international economic security, world brotherhood and internal peace and security within its own country. The youth motto is "Peace, freedom, progress."

The next meeting of the council will be held on Thursday, December 10, at 8 o'clock, at the Y.M.C.A., and all youth groups are asked to have their delegates in attendance, as the completion of the constitution and election of officers will be held.

SAYS HEALTH IS PROTECTED

Sir Walter Kinnear Tells of 19,000,000 Insured People in Great Britain

"People in Great Britain are so well protected with health and old-age pension schemes that they are reluctant to migrate," said Sir Walter Kinnear, controller since 1919 of national insurance in the British Ministry of Health, who arrived in Victoria this morning by the Ss. Niagara, en route to England from Australia.

Sir Walter left London in June for Australia and advised the national government on a contributory scheme of pensions for widows, orphans and elderly people. He also visited New Zealand, which country is studying health and pension plans. He expects to spend a few days in Vancouver before proceeding to California and New York. He will have Christmas at sea, crossing the Atlantic.

MANY IN SCHEME
There were 19,000,000 persons insured in health and pension schemes in Great Britain today, Sir Walter said, employee and employer contributing equal amounts, to which was added a substantial sum by the government.

Old-age pensions were allowed at the age of sixty-five and if the husband died, the allowance was continued to the widow and each child, up to the age of sixteen. Those contributing to old-age pension for a period of ten years do not lose their right to the pension. Sir Walter said.

Doctors numbering 16,000 were enrolled in the health insurance plan, most of them on the panel system. In addition to free medicines, several millions of dollars are allocated for free dental and ophthalmic treatment by friendly societies through which the plan is administered.

Sir Walter knew all about British Columbia's proposed health insurance and said the plan was being keenly watched in other dominions of the British Commonwealth.

"Y" Tumbling Classes Open
The Y.M.C.A. tumbling classes under the direction of Len Oliver, opened at the association's badminton hall on View Street yesterday evening with a fair turnout for the first class. Mr. Oliver was assisted by Irene Holmes in the women's and girls' divisions as the preliminary exercises were taught.

With plenty of equipment on hand at the hall, the classes have been organized with a view to building up an act for the annual Y.M.C.A. circus next spring. The classes will be held every Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and all girls and women wishing to receive instruction are asked to get in touch with the Y.M.C.A.

TO DISCUSS NEW BY-LAW

Council Members to Meet in Committee Sessions Today

Further discussion of the offer of Harvey Kavenor to lease the grain elevator at Ogden Point was scheduled today at a meeting of the city's business and trades development committee at the City Hall.

The meeting was called for 3 o'clock, half an hour before the council was to meet informally to discuss the new city building by-law on which Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins, Alderman Walter Luney, the building inspector and other officials have spent months of preparation. The by-law is now virtually ready for passage, having been given the approval of the Architectural Institute of British Columbia as well as the Victoria Builders' Exchange and other bodies interested in building.

The new by-law aims at relaxing restrictions on building in the city without prejudicing the safety of the city from a point of view of fire or accident. Among other clauses, it contains one which would permit the construction of ten-story buildings again in the city, as opposed to the seven-story limit now in force.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the council is scheduled to meet to consider the question of allowing downtown corner propertyholders to build flush with the lot line at the corner. Following the hearing, the mayor and aldermen will sit for the last time before the election in a regular council meeting.

FARM SCHEME IS PROPOSED

General Hornby Seeks to Enlist Government Support for Settlement Here

Support of the British Columbia Government for a plan of bringing British settlers out to British Columbia and placing them on farms was sought today by Brigadier-General M. L. Hornby, who had arranged to explain the plan to Premier Pattullo.

Under the scheme it is proposed a fixed number of settlers should be brought out to the province each year and placed first on large farms as training centres. When they had absorbed the practical side of British Columbia farming methods they would be ready to take farms of their own.

The actual settlement scheme would work without cost to the provincial government and would be paid by the British Government under its overseas settlement scheme, which has been inoperative for some years. The province, however, would be asked to build roads giving access to the newly-settled areas.

Federal government approval of the scheme is required to allow settlers to enter Canada.

The Saskatchewan Government, General Hornby said, has approved his plan for putting settlers in the province under a similar arrangement.

MARKET NOTES

A shipment of Japanese oranges arrived on wholesale row this morning, ending a week's shortage. A thousand boxes were unloaded here, and the remainder of a cargo of 40,000 boxes shipped to Vancouver and eastern centres. Japanese oranges will be routed through Vancouver to the United States during the maritime strike.

Fresh pineapples from Honolulu also arrived here today.

Eastern cranberries are now on the market. Last year's supply has been halved, but western cranberries will fill the demand.

Grade A large eggs are still scarce, but medium and pullet eggs are becoming more plentiful. The market is held firm by shipments made from Vancouver to eastern Canada, where prices are eight cents higher. Freight charges on a shipment sent on consignment to Montreal yesterday amounted to six cents a dozen. Another shipment will be made at the end of the week, dealers expect.

Lecturer Gives Talks on Spain

Sidney, Nov. 27.—Spain and the Causes of the Present Civil War, was the subject of two lectures given by Rev. Andrew Roden of Vancouver before packed houses at South Saanich and Sidney St. Paul's United Churches Wednesday evening.

Illustrating his talk with slides, the lecturer traced the history of Spain from early times up to the present. General Franco dare not put the regular army up in the front line and trouble is bound to come when the Moors realize the use he is making of them, declared Mr. Roden. Mr. Roden lived for six years on the fortress of Gibraltar and gave intimate glimpses of Spanish life before the war and during the present conflict. The relation of the Balearic Islands and Malta to Gibraltar and the nature of the fortress were also shown.

divisions as the preliminary exercises were taught.

With plenty of equipment on hand at the hall, the classes have been organized with a view to building up an act for the annual Y.M.C.A. circus next spring. The classes will be held every Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and all girls and women wishing to receive instruction are asked to get in touch with the Y.M.C.A.

Major K. B. Spurgin Died Suddenly

Major K. B. Spurgin, well-known architect of Victoria, passed away suddenly this morning in the Royal Jubilee Hospital. One of the outstanding architectural figures in British Columbia, Major Spurgin has been in ill-health for some time. He was second in command of the 103rd Battalion and a veteran of the Boer War.

He designed many large projects in Victoria and district, the most recent buildings being the drill hall and office building for the federal Naval Department at Esquimalt.

The buildings of the Prince of Wales Fairbridge Farm School near Duncan were planned and the construction supervised by him.

THREE SPANISH WARSHIPS SUNK

Canadian Press from Havas
Paris, Nov. 27.—High-speed insurgent battle planes today roared in pursuit of four Spanish government warships after sinking three others off Cartagena and bombing the Mediterranean port, it was reported here.

QUEENSLAND PARTY HERE

Hon. Percy Pease and Victor Grenning Investigating Timber Industry

Forestry and lumbering operations as well as national parks in Canada and the United States will be investigated by Hon. Percy Pease, Deputy Premier and Minister of Lands in the Queensland Government, and Victor Grenning, Director of Forests at Brisbane, who arrived in Victoria this morning by the liner Niagara from Australia.

"We are here to learn," said Mr. Pease, in an interview in his suite at the Empress Hotel immediately after disembarking from the liner.

"We believe that Canada's development in her great timber resources as well as the New Deal in the United States as applied to the stabilization of the timber industry, will assist us in solving our problem in Queensland," he added.

Establishment of the pool system giving the industry control of marketing operations and the fixing of minimum prices by legislative enactment is contemplated in Queensland.

SET PRICE LEVELS
"Establishing price levels, not only in the lumbering industry, but in every branch of industrial activity, is the basis of economic recovery," said Mr. Pease.

The Queensland visitors were met this morning by E. C. Manning, chief forester for B.C., and taken for a drive about the city. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon they had a private conference with Premier Pattullo at the Legislative Buildings.

Mr. Pease and his party expect to leave early next week on a tour of Vancouver Island to get an insight into the timber operations. They will inspect the larger mills and look over the more important timber stands on the island.

Subsequently they will go to the United States and proceed to New Orleans, to inspect the southern yellow pine of Louisiana, which supplies Queensland with the bulk of its seeds used in its reforestation policy.

Under the policy of the Labor Government of Queensland the aim is to nationalize the state's assets, and great progress has been made in this direction during the seven years the government of Premier Forgan Smith has been in office.

Ninety per cent of the raw materials of the state of Queensland are controlled by the government, the deputy premier stated.

"Since the Labor Government has been in power, Queensland has never had an overdraft," he said. "We have not balanced our budget in receipts and expenditures, but that is accounted for by the exchange situation. Our borrowings from England run to £100,000,000, but £60,000,000 of that is represented in the railways. We have never defaulted and have always managed to meet our interest payments. At no time are we without £500 in the treasury and the treasury balance has been as high as £1,250,000."

Rehabilitation through a policy of work and wages to assure more spending power is the basis of Queensland's recovery, Mr. Pease said.

The relief tax gives the government £1,750,000 a year, which is used in the subsidization of local authorities to provide improvement works to take care of the unemployed.

In support of the Queensland policy of providing "wages for the people," Mr. Pease said the government had emancipated between 50,000 and 60,000 people who had been out of work prior to the taking over of the government by the Labor Party in 1929.

Accompanying Mr. Pease is his wife and their niece, Miss Margaret Kirk. They plan to return to Brisbane from Victoria next March.

CARDS MARKED "PAID"

Martins Ferry, Ohio, Nov. 27 (Associated Press).—Residents of Martins Ferry will receive combination Christmas cards and electric light bills. But, says the municipal light company, all the bills will be stamped "paid." City officials say they will make the Christmas presents to cut a surplus of $250,000 in light plant funds.

Legion Branch Honors Leader

Langford, Nov. 27.—Rev. A. M. Acheson-Lyle, president of the Prince Edward Branch No. 91 Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., was the guest of honor at a social held in the legion clubrooms Thursday evening. A. G. Mackie, vice-president, voiced the regrets of the members of the branch on losing Comrade Acheson-Lyle, who is leaving for England. A letter from the provincial council conveyed best wishes.

Rev. Mr. Acheson-Lyle was presented with a writing case.

Vocal solos were given by Mrs. James MacFarlane, Mrs. F. H. Staverman, Horace Simpson, Frank Smedley and a pianoforte solo by Mrs. N. Bertucci. Progressive contract bridge winners were Jack Wilkinson, with A. F. Bayliss obtaining the consolation; progressive auction, Mrs. E. Gould; consolation, Mrs. F. H. Staverman. Mrs. J. W. Little won at the 600 tables. Mrs. J. King getting the consolation prize.

SIX MONTHS FOR FORGERY
Man With Long Record Sentenced Here for Passing False Cheques

On three forgery charges, to which he pleaded guilty, James Rourke was sentenced to six months' imprisonment by Magistrate Henry Hall in the City Police Court this morning. He was given consecutive sentences of two months on each charge.

His term will commence at the expiration of a thirteen month term, which he received in Vancouver and New Westminster this week on four charges of obtaining money by false pretences. He is now awaiting trial on an attempted fraud charge.

In passing the forged cheques here, Rourke victimized three local merchants from whom he obtained cash and goods.

To E. Patterson, clothing merchant, he presented a cheque for $33 for purchased goods. He received $20.50 in cash and $12.50 in goods. The cheque was purported to be made by A. Berry in favor of James Rourke.

He received $25 cash from Ernest Hill's Drive Voucher firm when he presented a $45 cheque for a $20 deposit. To this document he forged the name of S. Banfield.

The third cheque purported to be one made by A. Wright in favor of the accused for $20. It was used to pay for a $5 ring purchased from Gladys M. Stark, and he received $15 cash in change.

A list of previous convictions in Victoria, Saskatchewan, Vancouver and Washington, dating from 1930, was read to the court by C. L. Harrison, prosecutor.

This afternoon Rourke was taken to Nanaimo, where is wanted by provincial police.

Diggers Search For Three Bodies

Juneau, Alaska, Nov. 27.—Thirteen bodies of the sixteen persons believed to have died in Sunday's great landslide here had been found today, as rescue crews wearily dug in the mass of mud, rock and timbers to recover the other three.

Two bodies, believed those of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Peterson, were found late yesterday in the ruins of the Peterson building, one of "BORG" thin a dozen structures demolished when earth and stones, loosened by a day's steady rain, fell down a mountainside on a section of the city.

CHANGE OF NAME

Detroit, Nov. 27 (Associated Press).—George Funnell doesn't like his last name. He petitioned the court to make the name Robert George Howard because people think it is a "funny" name and that "it is hurting me in my business." He is an accountant.

In computing the number of words in an advertisement, count five words for the first two lines and seven words for each line thereafter. This is not an absolute rule to the number of lines, much depends on the length of the individual words.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one issue. Any claim for return of money on errors or omissions must be made within thirty days from the date of the same, otherwise the claim will not be allowed.

Advertisers who desire to have their notices addressed to a box at the Times Office and forwarded to their private address, a charge of 10¢ is made for this service.

Subscribers wishing their addresses changed should notify this office as well as the carrier. If your Times is missing, please advise before 8 p.m. and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

STAFF OF P.I. REORGANIZED

Mrs. Boettiger, Roosevelt's Daughter, May Be Women's Editor in Seattle

Seattle, Nov. 27.—The Post-Intelligencer today reorganized its disorganized newsroom staff and the city editor planned assignments for strikers and non-strikers returning to work Sunday to get out Monday morning's edition—the first since August 13.

Executives awaited the arrival of the new publisher, John Boettiger, President Roosevelt's son-in-law, whose appointment William Randolph Hearst, the newspaper's owner, announced yesterday in New York.

The strike committee of the Seattle chapter of the American Newspaper Guild, which called the walkout that closed the Post-Intelligencer, stated it believed Boettiger would "win the confidence of the entire Post-Intelligencer staff."

Hearst said, in announcing the appointment, "Mr. Boettiger will have absolute freedom in directing the editorial and business policies of The Post-Intelligencer."

Boettiger's wife, the former Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, probably will become women's editor, it was indicated in New York.

The staff of The Guild Daily, published after The Post-Intelligencer suspended, made ready to put their paper "to bed" for the last time to night. The strikers waged part of their fight against the Hearst management through The Guild Daily.

OAK BAY THEATRE

"Waltz Time in Vienna" is now being shown at the Oak Bay Theatre. The music is gay, varied, and beautifully played. The story is springy, the settings on a scale that gives the film plenty of production value.

Four Stars in One Picture

Jean Harlow, William Powell, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy come to the Capitol screen tomorrow in "Libeled Lady."

Jean Harlow has the comedy hit role of her career as the dashing spitfire Gladys who loves Spencer Tracy so much that she's even willing to marry another man in order to help him out of a hole. William Powell and Myrna Loy, fresh from their joint triumph in "The Great Ziegfeld," are again irresistible engaging in the respective roles of a reporter who schemes to compromise a lady in order to force her to drop a libel suit, and the lady herself who neatly turns the tables when the man who seeks to victimize her falls in love with her instead!

Nearly all the disease-causing bacteria found in milk, says a health official, are introduced into the milk by man, during handling and transporting it.
